

County has most to offer in bi-state area; land use, sewer issues

Madison County in Illinois, followed closely by St. Charles County in Missouri, have the most to offer in terms of future economic development, a breakfast gathering was told here yesterday.

Arthur G. Baebler, Regional Commerce and Growth Association general manager, said the two counties offer large tracts of land, a scarce commodity in the bi-state metropolitan area. St. Louis County and St. Louis are rapidly running out of major sites for new development, he added.

Despite some continuing "image" problems related to building costs, this area and the entire metropolitan region are on the verge of a national breakthrough; an outstanding image can be achieved, compared to competing regions, he said.

Addressing a Granite City Rotary Community Service Division gathering, Baebler said "silly suits" that delay sanitary sewer service pose a threat to Madison County economic growth.

Land use restrictions at the county or regional level also are of serious concern, he said, along with new Illinois legislation on flood hazard zones that fail to take into account this area's unique levee protection and "ward levee" residential-commercial-industrial status.

Baebler forecast that transfer of Air Force units to the Scott Base near Belleville from the Kansas City area will be approved within the next few days.

Noting Transportation Secretary Brock Adams' negative attitude toward Meramec and Alton dam projects, he voiced hope that the U.S. will be willing to expedite railroad modernization proposals here that could reduce shippers' time and cost.

Introduced by C. E. Mathias, moderator, the speaker urged land-banking for a new airport and said projected air fare hikes may reduce nationwide airline passenger volume, enabling Lambert Airport to remain in use longer than originally expected.

Baebler forecast that a proposed foreign trade zone at the Tri-City Port will attract both overseas companies and nearby firms, whose expected happy experience will create momentum for rapid expansion of F.T.Z. manufacturing, storage and shipping activity here.

He urged that existing local sites be converted into accessible, utility-served industrial parks as quickly as possible.

The speaker called for major emphasis on providing new homes and job opportunities in the bi-state region.

Between now and the year 2000, unless there is an annual average growth of 15,000 dwelling units and 20,000 jobs in the region, "We current residents won't be able to keep our kids in this region," he concluded.

Patrick, Hinterser elected

Robert "Bob" Patrick, 38, was elected the 10th president of the Granite City Park Board last night during a special reorganization meeting at the board offices in Wilson Park.

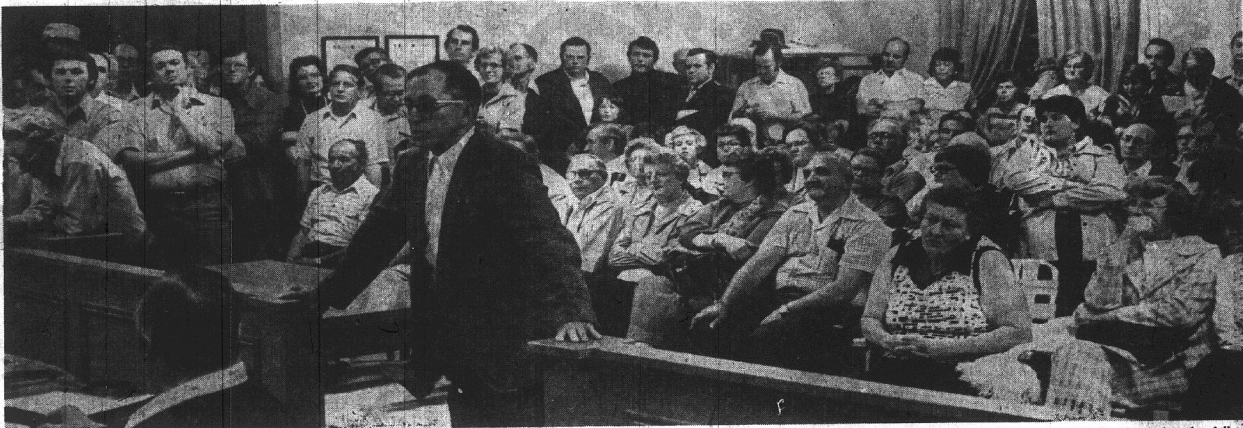

Patrick, retail advertising manager of the Granite City Press-Record, was born in Mattoon and has lived here 31 years. He was elected to a six-year term on the park board in 1973.

He attended local public schools, Eastern Illinois University for three years and studied business and art courses at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, and advertising courses at St. Louis University.

Patrick succeeds former park board president Henry R. Gabriel who lost a bid for a new six-year term in the April 19 park election.

A series of challenges to the political strength of the city administration of Mayor Paul Schuler went down in defeat Tuesday night in a hectic session of the newly-organized Granite City Council.

In a packed council chamber filled by more than 200 persons who overflowed into the City Hall corridors, a majority bloc of aldermen, most of them incumbents, defeated one by one a number of attempts by newly-seated Alderman Charles Douglas of the First Ward to countermand council procedures initiated by incumbent administration aldermen.

While much of the crowd obviously was present in support of a move to rescind an April 26 council action which changed the status of the street superintendent's office from an elected post to an appointive one, such an effort, also made by Douglas, was defeated by a two-vote margin.

The seating of five new aldermen elected in the April 5 session, immediately following disposition of Town Board business by the formerly constituted council. Those taking their council seats during the meeting were Douglas in Ward One, Fred Schuman Jr. in Ward Two, Lloyd H. Bailey and Mrs. Margaret Nunn in Ward Five and Paul Ray Bowler in Ward Seven.

The first major test of aldermanic alignments came on a motion by Douglas that the ordinance establishing an appointive office for the street superintendent, effective May 1, 1979, be rescinded.

Douglas advanced the motion after eight persons had been permitted to speak from the audience, although not all of them directed their remarks to the issue involving the election of a street superintendent. At least two of the speakers discussed the city ambulance service which was established last March.

Street Superintendent Lionel Portell was given the floor after Douglas' motion was made, and told the audience that the council's enactment of the ordinance eliminating the elective status of his office was an "illegal one" which he said "is in violation of the council's own rules," and that it was "cooked up in a back room by some disgruntled politicians."

"According to the research we have made in this issue the council, when it changed its meeting nights from Monday nights to Tuesday nights, provided in that ordinance that the fourth Tuesday of the month would be devoted only to communications and committee reports," Portell said.

"On that basis, this action of taking away an elective office was done in violation of the council's own rules."

"The reason for most of these people being here tonight is not in behalf of Portell, but is because an elective office is being taken away," he added.

"This was an illegal motion cooked up in a back room by some disgruntled politicians," he commented, adding that "these people want the ordinance rescinded because their rights have been violated."

Douglas told the council that "we should have a vote now on a motion to rescind to avoid a court action."

Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward who was elected mayor pro-tem to serve in the absence of Mayor

Schuler, who is attending a conference in San Antonio, Tex., instructed City Clerk Robert Stevens to take a roll call vote on the motion.

On the vote, aldermen voting against rescinding the ordinance were Clyde Boyd, Gerald Farmley, Earl Baker, Roy Poulos and Glen Sprankle.

Voting in favor were Douglas, Everett Morlen, Whitmer, Bowler, Mrs. Nunn, Bailey, Schuman and Warren Decatur. Alderman Emerald Daves was absent.

The vote of 8 to 5 in favor was

GC citizens voice views

Opposition to a new city ordinance making the office of the city street superintendent an appointive instead of an elected post was expressed by Granite Cityans Tuesday night during a City Council meeting in which an effort to rescind the measure was defeated.

Of more than 200 persons who packed the City Council chambers and overflowed into the city hall corridors, eight were given permission to speak on the controversial issue which resulted from enactment of the ordinance in the council's April 26 meeting.

In addition, two of eight who were allowed to speak did not touch on the street superintendent's office change, but instead discussed the city's recently-instituted city ambulance service which now is operated by the Fire Department. One of the others criticized Bi-State bus service.

City Council members agreed at the opening of the meeting to permit members of the audience to address the council, limiting the time of their talks to five minutes each. In nearly all instances the speakers made only brief comments and did not take all of their allotted five minutes.

Daniel Partney, an associate of the Thomas Ambulance Service, outlined events that led up to the beginning of the city ambulance service which was instituted after Thomas' service announced it planned to cut back its emergency service in the area to a point that would not adequately serve the area.

Partney said that although the Thomas firm agreed with the city to furnish backup service, a letter dated April 18, nearly two weeks after April 5

School photo contract restored to GC studio

The Granite City Board of Education voted Tuesday night to return to using Hollywood Andrews Photo Studio as the school district's official photographer for the upcoming school year.

Hollywood Andrews served as the district's official photographer for many years until the board decided to try the Famous Barr Portrait Division in St. Louis for a one-year trial period due to lower bid prices in several areas.

The affiliated company which serves Famous Barr, American Photo, developed operational difficulties early this year and the ownership went into receivership, a Famous Barr spokesman explained.

Famous Barr honored all of the contract provisions, but some school district officials said the district did not receive the "free extras" which had been provided in previous years by Hollywood Andrews Studio, including attending many school functions and taking numerous photos which were

Highway 3 work slated

A $152 million Illinois road program, including new work in Venice, was announced for July 1977-June 1978 yesterday by Governor James R. Thompson.

Included in the program are: Illinois Route Three in Madison and St. Clair Counties—Broadway in Venice to Interstate 55 and 70, resurfacing of 3.5 miles, estimated cost of $615,000.

Madison County Illinois Routes 143 and 137, St. Andrews Street to Schwarz Street and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville entrance road to north of Interstate 70, resurfacing of 3.75 miles, $665,000.

Illinois 143—Edwardsville east city limits to I-55, widening and resurfacing of 2.66 miles and replacement of two bridge structures, $725,000.

Improvements totaling $7.8 million for the Great River Road, which parallels the Mississippi River for the length of Illinois, were included in the new program. Federal portions of the road will be marked in several sections, including from Pere Marquette State Park near Gratiot to this area.

Thompson said the road improvement program, second largest in the nation, is $31 million less than last year's announced program. The New York road plan exceeds Illinois' $612 million by $38 million.

He said it is "a prudent program which uses all available resources for repair and construction, while enabling the state to pay the bills for $438 million in road repairs now in progress."

Thompson said schools participating in this year were St. Elizabeth, Frohardt and Johnson schools, in addition to those mentioned.

Efforts to encourage more students and schools to enter the Americanism—patriotic contests will be made, she said. Plans for next year's competition will be announced in September, she added.

All contestants and their schools will receive "thank you" cards from the auxiliary, the officer noted.

Three convicted in Chouteau rape case

After nearly two and one-half hours of deliberations Tuesday, a jury in Madison County Circuit Court at Edwardsville returned guilty verdicts against three men on charges of rape and deviate sexual assault.

Donald Jenkins, 22, Mark Mueller, 21, and Richard Knowles, 23, all of St. Louis, were each convicted on two counts of rape and two counts of deviate sexual assault. The allegations stemmed from the rape of two St. Louis girls on Chouteau Island Aug. 7, 1976. The three men first were tried on the charges in February, but that trial ended in a hung jury after more than nine hours of deliberation Feb. 17.

Two youths who were granted immunity in the case testified at both trials against the defendants. A driver's license dropped at the scene by one of those given immunity led to the arrests and four additional arrests are anticipated.

The two victims alleged nine men had forced them to have sex from St. Louis to Chouteau Island where they were assaulted.

After the verdict was announced, the defense attorneys requested that each juror be polled. During the lengthy process, each juror confirmed his verdict on each of the 12 counts.

Chief Circuit Judge Harold Clark, who conducted both trials, set sentencing for early in June, after a pre-sentence investigation had been conducted.

Mrs. Rose Halabrin dies

Man robbed and beaten
Gary Hudson, 29, of 2445 Cleveland Blvd., was robbed and severely beaten when four men and a woman forced their way into his home about 5:15 a.m. today.

Hudson said he was awakened by a knock on the door and when he opened the door, the five forced their way in, knocked him to the floor, kicked him and beat him with a long black pipe or club.

He was knocked unconscious and when he regained consciousness, the five had left. He noticed about $70 to $80 had been removed from his wallet on the kitchen table.

Hudson walked to the Granite City Police Department where he reported the robbery. Officers took him to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was admitted with possible broken ribs, cuts to his head and right shoulder and multiple bruises to his back.

Fellowship

"Gifts to Claim," the theme of May Fellowship Day, follows through on the World Day of Prayer theme, "Love in Action," Mrs. Marion Pierson, CWU vice-president, said.

The Church Women United chorus will provide the music, she announced. All women are invited to attend.

$1,500 FIRE DAMAGE
Fire at 1:50 a.m. today caused an estimated $1,500 damage to the garage of Oliver Gilleland, 116 Wilson Park Lane. An electrical short-circuit in the wiring to an air compressor is believed to have started the fire which spread through one side of the garage, went into the attic and then through the roof. Firemen were on the scene one hour and 25 minutes.

Mrs. Glenda Brockman, public relations officer, said the winning students each will receive a $25 U.S. Savings Bond from the local auxiliary.

Both entries will be advanced to state competition for judging at the Illinois Amvets and Auxiliary state convention in June.

Mrs. Brockman said schools participating in this year were St. Elizabeth, Frohardt and Johnson schools, in addition to those mentioned.

Appointive positions also were reaffirmed last night, with the board retaining Frank Rea as secretary, John Mink as treasurer, Randall Robertson as attorney and Harold Brown as director of parks and recreation.

Robertson has served as park district attorney since 1954, and Rea as secretary since 1955. Brown, who last month celebrated his 25th year as an

Capt. Everett Kelly ends 21-year police career

CAPT. EVERETT KELLY Retiring policeman

Capt. Everett C. Kelly, head of the patrol division of the Granite City Police Department since February 1974, retired from the department Tuesday and his request for retirement was accepted by the Granite City Council Tuesday night.

Kelly was granted a disability pension after injuring his back on duty in 1972 and again last year.

In his retirement letter to Mayor Paul Schuler Kelly noted, "I have had a very enjoyable career as a police officer with the city of Granite City and I have enjoyed working with the mayor and all my fellow employees."

"I am disappointed that my career has been cut short by this disabling injury, as there were many more programs I wanted to introduce to the department in an effort to bring about better service to the citizens and a department which you could continue to be proud of."

"You have a fine chief in my friend Ron (Veizer) and I'm sure he will continue to provide guidance to the new patrol division captain, as he has for me the past three years."

Kelly offered the mayor his services in any capacity he could fill and added, "As you know, I have a deep, abiding feeling for the police department. It has been my life for the past 21 years."

Kelly started with the police department March 16, 1956; was promoted to sergeant Aug. 1, 1967; became a lieutenant July 16, 1971, and was promoted to captain Feb. 5, 1974, when the department was reorganized and the patrol division was created.

He has received numerous commendations during his career for bravery, investigations and apprehensions, and for good work attendance.

His first commendation was received in December 1960 after he cut down a hanging man and halted the attempted suicide.

In March 1967, he was commended for solving a burglary at Tri-City Radio and in November 1968 was honored for an arrest solving two rapes and cases of window peeping and break-ins.

Commendations followed on June 3, 1971, for the successful investigation into the murder of James Dunning; Feb. 14, 1973, for the apprehension of an escaped murderer from St. Louis; and July 16, 1973, for solving a robbery at A&P Food Store.

A murder investigation led to a commendation in November 1973 and arrests for gambling and prostitution brought another commendation in December 1974.

Another commendation in December of 1972 dealt with a gambling raid at a local tavern and the collecting of confidential information which led to the issuing of that search warrant.

Jan. 16, 1976, Kelly was congratulated for gathering information which led to the issuance of a search warrant in the 2300 block of Lincoln Avenue.

Investigation into the murders of Richard and Anna Kube in March 1976 led to commendations to Kelly and his division, even though the murders are still unsolved.

In January this year, Kelly and his division received a commendation for developing numerous leads and good follow-up investigations throughout 1976.

He also was commended in December 1976 for solving an attempted armed robbery and shooting of a local minister.

Other information gathered about the same time led to the solving of an industrial case at a St. Louis warehouse early this year where two former employees were charged with taking nearly $5,000 worth of material in a complex system involving the company's inventory computer.

Letters congratulating Kelly are on file concerning the arrests of two men in August 1972, and their subsequent convictions of a murder in Florida; the gathering of information which aided in a successful drug raid by the Metropolitan Enforcement Group in September 1975, and for gathering confidential information to solve a Jacob-smeyer's Tavern burglary, arrest a suspect and recover $2,190 in cash in May 1976.

One case Kelly recalls vividly involved a 1972 investigation into the murder in Missouri of Donald Cox, who was taken by two men from here to Troy, Mo., where he was beaten and shot six times.

Confidential "street information" received by Kelly led to the arrest of Charles Wheeler in Springfield, Mo., where he is serving a 25-year term for murder, and to the arrest of Donald Brauch who is now serving a life term in prison at Jefferson City, Mo., for murder.

The late Leo Cosgrove, a former local resident, also was indicted on a murder charge in connection with that case, but he was murdered in a Madison tavern before coming to trial.

Kelly said the case involved lengthy investigation and at one time during it, there was a $1,500 "contract" on Kelly's life, sources told him.

In July 1975, Kelly located Wheeler and a 17-year-old brother who allegedly robbed the A&P Food Store and had an opportunity to fire a shot at the duo fled, but did not because of the close vicinity of children on the Namecki Elementary School playground.

There also are cases on file of Kelly being confronted and threatened with guns, knives and other weapons. All ended successfully in arrests with no one injured.

A successor to Kelly has not yet been named and Lt. Col. George Teller will remain in charge of the patrol division until there is a promotion to captain. Several other promotions and one hiring are expected to follow the naming of a new captain.

Bubblemasters earn top award in Midwest Divers Council meet

The Bubblemasters Scuba Diving Club of Granite City returned home this week with the top trophy presented at the spring convention dive, sponsored by the Midwest Divers Council and held during the weekend at Table Rock Lake, Mo.

To bring the large traveling trophy to Illinois for the first time in its 10-year history, the local scuba divers defeated top-rated clubs from Kansas City and St. Louis by accumulating the most points in skin and scuba spearfishing events.

The trophy has been won each spring for most of the past decade by the Deep Six and Frogmen's clubs of Dansans City.

It almost was captured again by the Deep Six divers, whose point total was only one less than the Granite City club.

More than 45 boats and 155 divers took part in the scuba competition, held on the final day of the three-day dive.

A total of 103 divers in 35 boats participated in the previous day's skin diving contest, according to Phil Lamm, Bubblemasters president.

Key divers from the local club whose overall points helped to win the coveted traveling trophy included:

Larry Eearney, who captured the first-place trophy for most fish speared in skin diving; and Wally Marzuff and Ed Duffin, who received fourth and fifth place awards, respectively, for most fish in the same contest. In the largest fish category, Randy Viessman's 15 pound, 10 ounce catch earned him the first place trophy.

Viessman took a third-place trophy for largest fish in scuba competition, recording a 13 pound, five ounce catch.

Also in scuba spearfishing, Lamm captured the runnerup trophy for most fish and Richard Grizzard received the third-place trophy for most fish.

The Bubblemasters served as host club for the convention dive, attended by divers from clubs in Kansas, Arkansas, Missouri and Illinois.

About 150 persons were entertained at a barbecue and party, also arranged by the local divers under the direction of Sharon Eearney, entertainment chairman.

Assisting Mrs. Eearney were Nancy Viessman, Paula Speers, Cathy Legate, Elva Jean Weiss, Max Legate and Brian, Kelly and Mary Eearney.

Thirty members of the Bubblemasters participated in the event.

Scheduled dives within the next few weeks include: Lake Ponne de Terre, May 21-22; Bull Shoals Lake at Pontiac, May 27-30; and Long Creek on Table Rock Lake, June 4-5.

Venice school board ballots are impounded

Madison County Sheriff's officers picked up all ballots, poll books, documents and other papers relating to the April 9 school board election in Venice School District 2 Monday afternoon from the office of Venice Superintendent of Schools Robert N. Vickers.

An order to impound the ballots and other papers was signed by Circuit Judge Harold Clark of the Third Judicial Circuit Court in response to a petition filed earlier the same day on behalf of John Henry Williams, a candidate declared to be unsuccessful in his bid for one of the Venice Board of Education seats.

The voting returns, registers and other legal papers connected with the election were delivered to Circuit Court Clerk Willard V. Portell to "secure and preserve said items until further ordered."

The election contest proceedings challenges the outcome of the April 9 school board election and alleges a list of irregularities occurred in Venice Precinct Two, located at the Eagle Park Improvement Association building.

In the complaint, Williams alleges that "a mistake or fraud was committed in Precinct Two... in the counting and returns of votes and that irregularities occurred in the conduct of the election."

The complaint further states the canvass of the votes declared Jack Tolliver, Wilbert

Glasper and Earl Hogan as elected and alleges that the total legal vote cast, if properly canvassed, would declare John Henry Williams, Hogan and Scott Worley to be elected. The suit was filed against Glasper and Tolliver. The court was asked to annul the election results in Precinct Two and declare as elected Williams, Hogan and Worley, or in the alternative that all materials pertaining to the election in Precinct Two be examined and recounted, illegal votes removed and that Williams, Hogan and Worley be declared elected.

Allegations about Precinct Two, as outlined in the suit, include: "That the names of at least 35 persons appeared twice on the poll book used in said precinct. Names of at least six persons appeared three times on the poll book..."

"The name of one person appeared four times on the poll book... At least four persons who were duly registered and qualified electors were allowed to cast ballots..."

"Other persons' names appeared on the poll book who did not appear at the polls. The judges of said election permitted official ballots to be removed from the polling place. Election judges permitted ballots to be marked outside the polling booth supplied. The election judges permitted unauthorized persons to assist voters and to mark ballots for voters. Judges permitted sample ballots urging the election of the defendants and Elmer Taylor (defeated incumbent) to be conspicuously and continuously displayed within the polling place. The election judges permitted several unauthorized persons to remain in the polling place and openly solicit and urge votes for the named defendants and Elmer Taylor. A poll watcher lawfully inside the polling place on behalf of the plaintiff was offered a sum of money to not reveal what he observed during the conduct of this election and said offer of money was made in the presence of specified persons. Voters were offered cash payments in exchange for casting their ballots for the defendants and Elmer Taylor. Election judges did not have a record of qualified voters available and did not bother to determine whether persons seeking to vote were qualified electors. Unauthorized persons were permitted in polling booths with voters. Unauthorized persons were permitted in the polls after closing time and were permitted to handle, assist and supervise the counting of ballots. Numerous spoiled and otherwise defective ballots were counted.

The irregularities in said precinct were observed and tolerated... and were so glaring that it would be impossible to compute to what extent the entire poll was affected by the irregularities. The number of votes cast in Venice Precinct One (Venice High School) was itemized in the complaint, showing Jack Tolliver with 246; Elmer Taylor, 238; Wilbert Glasper, 178; John Henry Williams, 313; Earl Hogan, 370; Scott Worley, 297 and Verla M. Arnold, 33.

The complaint asks the court to annul the election results in Precinct Two and declare Hogan, Worley and Williams as elected, based upon the Precinct One election returns. At the Venice School Board's April 18 meeting, the votes from the April 9 election were canvassed. The votes recorded as cast at Venice Precinct Two showed Williams receiving 30 for a total of 345 votes; Tolliver, 232, total 477; Glasper, 245, total 424;

Taylor, 15, total 253; Hogan, 8, total 378; Worley, 3, total 300; and Mrs. Arnold, 24, total 274. Two candidates for a one-year unexpired term were Gerald Cicio, who received 462 at Precinct One and 10 at Precinct Two, total 472; and Alvester Salmood, 74 at Precinct One and 239 at Precinct Two, total 313.

Tolliver, Glasper and Hogan subsequently were seated as board members at the April 18 meeting.

Lawns valuable

By RON CORNWELL
Madison County
Agricultural Advisor

Madison County realtors make in a recent poll that an attractive lawn may increase the resale value of a home by about six per cent. This would mean an average increase of $1,800 to the resale value of a $30,000 home if it has an attractive versus an unattractive lawn.

Why does an attractive lawn cause an increase in the resale value of a home? Several reasons were discussed by area realtors.

Don Bryant said, "A buyer's first impression is important. Ninety-five per cent of the time, the condition of the outside of a home is a direct indication of the condition of the inside of a home."

"If we as realtors with potential buyers drive up in front of a house, and the yard is neat, well kept and well landscaped, you can bet that the inside of that home is going to be in sharp condition. My job of selling that property is then 95 per cent complete, if it is priced right."

Loyce Wolff commented, "An attractive lawn not only adds some additional resale value to a home, but it also speeds the sale of the home."

"Potential buyers simply accept the listed sale price of a home with an attractive lawn much more readily than the listed sale price of a home with an unattractive lawn."

"Good lawn care should be a community affair. It is a true story that your neighbor's home has an indirect bearing on the value of your home. If your neighbor has an unattractive lawn, it will have a minus factor on the sale price of your home."

O. M. Scott & Sons conducted a survey of 98 realtors in Chicago, Denver and northern New Jersey to determine the dollar difference that a thick, green, weed-free lawn would make in the sale price of a $45,000 home. The realtors estimated that an attractive lawn that is well landscaped would add about $2,900 to the resale value of a home in that price range.

For more information on lawn care and weed control, Quad-Cityans may contact Ron Hines, associate extension adviser, at the Madison County Extension Service (656-7200).

STUDENT ATHLETIC HONORS are outlined by Irwin J. Leidner, vice-president of Burlington Socks-Adler of New York, at the GCHS South auditorium. The program honored Miss Robin Deterding for her athletic

Nation salutes Supersport Robin

Miss Robin Deterding of Granite City is the "toast of the nation" as the first United States "Supersport."

The Granite City High School South graduate, now a freshman at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, has been judged to have attained the highest athletic achievement among all American teenage girls.

The graceful, 5'9" former local high school star, whose former coach Wilma Schulze describes her as possessing great ability to "turn on under pressure," played number one singles on South's girls' varsity tennis team for three years. She had a 25-6 composite win-loss record and won the district title in 1975.

Miss Deterding led the Warriorette girls' volleyball team to the state finals in her senior year, when she was selected as a member of the all-tournament team.

In high school basketball, she averaged 22 points per game as a senior and concurrently played with the Kuis team of St. Louis in the Cherokee League.

She was the only high school player in the entire league and averaged 19 points an outing enroute to winning the 1976 most valuable player award despite missing the first six games of the season.

In addition to running the 440 and 880 and anchoring the track team's mile-relay squad, she hit close to 500 and was an all-star selection in her final year with the Petriello softball nine.

Despite an active year-round sports schedule, Miss Deterding still found time for other school activities and maintained an above-average academic level.

She was president of the Junior and Senior High School Girls' Athletic Associations, member of the Student Council, 1976 May queen, 1975 Christmas holiday wrestling queen, member of the National Honor Society and an Illinois State Scholarship winner.

Expressing a desire to establish the same kind of tradition in girls' college basketball as Walt Frazier did for the men when he led SIUC to a national championship, Miss Deterding continues to perform brilliantly as an athlete, playing varsity volleyball, basketball and softball at Carbondale.

This summer, she will play for the St. Louis Reds, a fast-pitch team, and in July will travel with the team to Bermuda to play in international competition.

"I had to give up my dream of participating as an ice skater in the Olympics," she said, "in order to concentrate on more realistic goals, one of which was to obtain a college scholarship."

Miss Deterding has reached that goal and now has her sights set on another, "I want to be a coach just like Dad," Donald Deterding is GCHS South boy's basketball coach and is former GCHS North athletic coordinator.

Each month, three outstanding athletes were editorially saluted in Teen Magazine from more than 16,000 nationwide girls.

Miss Deterding was chosen as the overall winner and recipient of a $1,000 college scholarship from the New York firm.

The 19-year-old is a pre-medical student. She was cited for her prowess in tennis, volleyball, basketball and track in addition to softball and speed skating.

Miss Deterding honored in the GCHS South auditorium last last week, is to be profiled in a feature article in the August issue of the national magazine.

Robin Deterding helps SIUC beat SIUE team

In the never-ending struggle of dog versus cat, the dog triumphed again, unfortunately for the cat. The Salukis of Southern Illinois University at Carbondale defeated the Cougars of SIU at Edwardsville in a women's softball doubleheader during the weekend at the Cougars' home field.

The Salukis won both games by slim margins, 3-2 and then 2-1. The victories put the Carbondale squad at a 12-4 season mark and dropped the local team to 1-5.

In the first contest, the Salukis scored all four of their runs in the second inning. The Cougars put one run on the scoreboard in the bottom of the sixth when co-captain Jerri Wilson batted in first baseman Kathy Goins, who got on with a stand-up triple. In the seventh, SIUE pitcher Tammy Rainwater scored on a double by second baseman Jane O'Laughlin, who scored on Sharon Frey's hit.

The Cougars led off the second game with a run in the first inning. Jerri Wilson singled and crossed the plate when teammate Kathy Goins slammed a stand-up triple. The SIUE women held their sister school scoreless until the rainy fourth inning. The Saluki centerfielder reached base with a line drive hit. Teammate Nancy Choate followed with an advance to first on a Cougar error.

Leftfielder Robin Deterding of Granite City hit into a fielders' choice and the Cougars got the first base runner out at third. Then the little Saluki shortstop stepped to the plate and connected on a powerful hit, scoring Miss Choate.

Miss Deterding also scored when the Cougar hurler threw a wild pitch and the runner slid across the plate.

Both the Cougars and Salukis travel to DeKalb today through Saturday to participate in a state softball tournament being hosted by Northern Illinois University.

The Cougars, who have only been beaten by Western and their sister school in intrastate competition, are given a good chance of winning the title this year.

Rusick and fellow tennis Cougars have winning ways

The Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville tennis squad captured the Drake University Invitational 16-team tournament during the weekend by winning matches over the University of Kansas 6-0 and SIU at Carbondale 6-3.

After the Cougars blanked Kansas in the singles competition, the Jayhawks didn't even bother with the doubles play since they couldn't win the match. Juan Farrow, Arjun Fernando, Almeida, Granite City's Bill Rusick and Kent Smith were all easy victors in that semifinal meet.

Against their arch-rivals, the SIUC Salukis — (whom the Cougars had beaten once already in the season) — SIUC moved out to a quick 3-0 lead as Farrow, Fernando and Miller captured their singles encounter.

Almeida then lost 6-4, 6-3, but Rusick countered that loss by easing past Neville Kennerley 6-4, 6-4. Kent Smith lost 6-3, 7-6.

The doubles team of Farrow-Fernando clinched the title for Coach Kent Demars' team by winning 6-4, 6-4. Rusick-Smith triumphed over Jeff Lubner and Kennerley 7-6, 6-2. Miller-Randy Houston lost 6-4, 6-4.

In the meet at Des Moines, the Cougars updated their record to 16-3, including 13 consecutive victories. The Salukis fell to 12-11. SIUC had advanced to the finals by edging the defending champion Missouri U. Tigers 5-4.

Fernando, an All-American last season when he finished sixth in the NCAA tournament, has now won 16 straight matches. Farrow, a freshman, is now 10 of 11.

Cougars win own golfing tournament

SIUE golfers captured their own invitational during the weekend as the "A" team came from behind to defeat Western Illinois by a 592-601 score. The Leathernecks finished second.

SIUE's Les Age of Belleville edged Western's Jim Sobczynski in a sudden death playoff for medalist honors in the tournament. Age, a freshman, parred the fifth hole of sudden death and Sobczynski had a double-bogey.

For 36 holes, the two golfers had each shot a 144. Tim Gehrig of the Cougar "A" squad finished third with 145.

Western shot a team score of 303 to lead after the first day of competition, played on the Clinton Hills course in Belleville. The final 18 holes were played on the regular Cougar home course, Belk Park in Wood River.

It was at Belk that the SIUE "A" club made its move. The Cougars shot 286, which was two under par. Western dropped to second when it carded a team score of 298 for the final 18.

The University of Missouri-St. Louis was third with 620, and Milliken last with 638.

Other SIUE "A" scores were Mark Keeley 150, Brooks Brestal 153, and Kevin McConnell, 158. Cougar team scores were Stan Samoska 150, Guy Phillips 158, Gene Keeley 158, Keith Williams 160 and Bill Delaney, 168. The low four of five individual scores were counted in the team results.

The next match on tap for Coach Harry Gallatin's linksmen is the Bronco invitational at Western, Missouri, Kalamazoo, May 8-9.

Lakeview athletes honored

Lakeview Christian Academy high school held its first annual sports awards banquet in the Central Baptist Church, Pontoon Beach, honoring the boys' basketball and girls' volleyball teams and cheerleaders.

Kenneth Presson, principal of Victory Baptist School at Ferguson, Mo., served as guest speaker. Presenting individual awards were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hall, both of whom serve as coaches.

Senior Dennis McCaslin, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Don McCaslin, 3953 Lake St., was honored as most valuable player of the Patriot basketball squad, having averaged 26.9 points per game.

His brother, David, was selected as most improved player. The team had a 3-1 record.

The two award recipients lettered in the sport along with Mike Lybarger, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Jon Lybarger of Troy.

Accepting basketball pins were Gary Beal, Mike Corkan, Gary Crader and Greg Lybarger.

Representing the girls' sports program were members of the volleyball team, which ended the season with an 8-2 record and runnerup honors in a postseason invitational tournament played at St. Charles, Mo. The players also serve as cheerleaders during boys' basketball games.

In addition to receiving a school letter award, Miss Laura Lamb, a daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. John Lamb, 26 Wilson Park Lane, was cited as the team's most valuable player.

Her sister, Martha, was given a school letter and also a trophy as most outstanding cheerleader.

Most improved player award went to Rita Williams, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Garnett Williams, 2808 Birch Ave.

Presented with volleyball pins were Donna Elders, Laura Lamb, Vicky White and Rita and Karen Williams.

Receiving cheerleading pins were Donna Elders, Laura Lamb, Vicky White and Rita and Karen Williams.

Cougars lose but still hoping for tourney bid

The University of Missouri-St. Louis Rivermen, who successfully defended their championship of the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville invitational baseball tournament during the weekend, played four players on the meet's all-tourney team.

Coach Jim Dix's UMSL team repeated as champions by winning all three of their games, beating Austin Peay State University of Tennessee 2-1 in the opening game, edging past the St. Joseph College Pumas of Indiana 5-3 and then defeating the host SIUE Cougars 5-3 in the title game this week.

UMSL players chosen on the all-tourney team were: Larry Benoit, third base; Skip Mann, shortstop; Jim Lockett, outfielder; and Bruce Oelkers, right-handed pitcher.

Oelkers and SIUE's Jerry Deml battled it out for six innings. The Cougars took a first-inning lead on a leadoff single by Don Broadway, who advanced on an error. Don Lange's sacrifice fly to centerfield scored Broadway.

In the seventh, Deml appeared to weaken. The Rivermen, who lead the nation in base-stealing, scored three runs to take the lead for good.

Stan Osterbur of SIUE and Granite City was chosen as the all-star team's left-handed hurler and Oelkers was picked as the tourney's best right-handed pitcher.

The rest of the all-tourney infield: Tom Schoettie, first base; Austin Peay; Warren Gophart, second base; St. Joseph College; and Jeff Taylor, catcher, St. Joseph College.

The remainder of the all-tourney outfield consisted of SIUE's Don Eberlin and Austin Peay's Doug Eargle.

By whipping the Cougars, UMSL is now 2-1 over SIUE for the season and has cut its deficit in the series to 12-7. Both teams are said to have better-than-average chances to win berths in their NCAA Division II regional tournaments and could meet again in the national tourney at Springfield in early June.

Austin Peay's Eargle was chosen as the tournament's most valuable player. Best hitter honors went to St. Joseph's Jeff Taylor, who got six hits in 12 times at bat.

Coach Roy Lee's southpaw hurler, Osterbur, was chosen as the most's best pitcher. He hurled a six-hit shutout, 8-0 victory over Austin Peay State. It was only the third time in the Governors' 26-12 season that they have been shut out.

The Cougars earlier lost to St. Joseph's 6-3.

Over the next weekend, Saturday and Sunday, Lee's lads will travel to Macomb for a do-or-die series with the Western Illinois U. Leather-necks. If the Cougars could sweep the six-game series, they'd have a 23-12 record.

A split is almost a "must" if they are to be assured of winning their eighth straight post-season tournament bid. Both Western and Eastern are annually top competitors for a berth in the regional tourney.

The Cougars' next home game will start Tuesday, May 10, when their old rival, St. Louis U., comes calling for a twinbill. That same week, May 14, the Cougars must face Indiana Central of Indianapolis, another strong contender for a regional berth.

South Boosters to name officers

An election of officers will be held by the Granite City High School South Boosters Club, at a meeting to be conducted at 7 p.m. Tuesday, May 10, in the letterman's lounge, adjacent to Franz Feigl, president.

Future development of the soccer and baseball field complex also will be discussed, the president added.

Pet adoption clinic at Nameoki Village

"Be Kind to Animals Week" is being observed this week throughout Illinois and, in keeping with the occasion, the Association for Protection of Animals (APA) in Granite City will hold a pet adoption clinic from 10:30 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Saturday.

The clinic will take place at the APA's adoption center, located between Cassen's Drug Store and The Fabric Store in Nameoki Village Shopping Center.

Available for adoption are several pets from local homes whose owners are unable to keep the animals. Mrs. Mary Ann Loftus, adoption chairman, said.

Despite no longer having a shelter in which to care for unwanted pets, the APA volunteers have agreed to try to get the pets adopted, while leaving the animals at their owners' homes until a clinic is held, Mrs. Loftus explained.

Additional adoption clinics are being planned during the summer months, she said.

A small fee will be charged those adopting a pet, with the money to be added to a fund to construct a new shelter.

The APA's former facility at the Granite City Army installation was closed earlier this year.

Dogs being offered for adoption include: "Cookies," an 11-month-old part beagle female, very good with children; "Ginger," a 1½-year-old female Alaskan Husky, gold and white.

"Pepper," a 9-month-old male, part chihuahua and fox terrier, good with youngsters, but very protective of children in his own family; and a litter of 8-week-old puppies, half pug and half cocker spaniel, including two males and three females.

"Rags," a 2-year-old grey and cream female cat, is available for adoption; and a litter of four kittens, 8 weeks old, two males and two females, whose mother is a Siamese.

Although the APA can no longer care for unwanted pets at a permanent facility, Mrs. Loftus said the group is conducting investigations, involving allegations of cruelty to animals, and also planning fund-raising projects to help build a new shelter.

The first money-making project will be a car wash on Saturday, May 21, from 10 a.m.

Debra Fay Wein becomes Mrs. Kenneth A. Moody

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Wein of Glen Carbon are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Debra Fay Wein and Kenneth A. Moody, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Moody of Edwardsville.

The informal afternoon ceremony took place April 23 at the Glen Carbon Methodist Church with the Rev. Richard Unger of Edwardsville, officiating in a setting of spring flowers and greenery.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church social rooms.

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Wein wore a floor-length gown of white double knit and a white picture hat. Her bouquet was composed of spring blossoms.

Mrs. Beverly Jones presided at the organ and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Richard Unger. The honor attendant, Mrs. Debra Hessel and bridesmaid, Miss Jean Jamboret, were dressed alike in light blue jersey gowns. They carried colonial bouquets of white flowers.

Daniel Moody, the bridegroom's brother, was best man and Don Wein, the bride's brother served as groomsmen.

The former Miss Wein is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wein of Glen Carbon, former residents of Granite City, for many years.

Both the bride and groom attended Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. The bride was formerly employed in St. Louis. They are residing on Meridian Road, near Glen Carbon.

Legal aid for elderly at 'Y'

Quad-City area senior citizens may call for an appointment for free legal aid at the YMCA, Donald Rains, program director, has announced.

Morton B. Melville, retired attorney, will be at the "Y" every second and fourth Tuesday of the month. The program is sponsored by the Land Of Lincoln foundation.

Any problems concerning public benefits programs can be dealt with by Melville, Rains said. Senior citizens may contact Ed Eide at the YMCA at 975-7200 to arrange appointments.

COORDINATING DRUG ARRESTS from the "command post" in the Granite City Police station during Friday's series of 34 arrests is Chief of Police Ronald J. Velzer, left, and Gary Bosio, director of the Metropolitan Enforcement Group of Southwestern Illinois (MEGSI). The arrests were made at numerous homes in Granite City and elsewhere in Madison County on warrants issued after a Madison County grand jury issued suppressed indictments against those arrested and a few who still are being sought. The indictments were the result of a five-month undercover operation during which MEGSI agents purchased more than $6,000 worth of drugs.

SEIZED DRUGS obtained during a coordinated series of drug arrests Friday are studied by Granite City Police Sgt. William Harris who was involved in discovering most of the items. While arresting 34 persons for drug sales to undercover agents during the previous five months, officers found pills and medication valued at several thousand dollars, according to police estimates. Also seized were a rifle, several marijuana plants, marijuana and seeds, drug and marijuana paraphernalia, two scales, a red explosive device, hashish, books on growing marijuana plants and other items.

Warrior Boosters commended

A review of the past, current and future projects of the Granite City High School South-Boosters of the Fighting Warriors Club brought praise Tuesday night by members of the Granite City Board of Education.

A delegation of club members attended the meeting at which Franz Feigl, club president, gave board members a written and oral review of the club's activities aiding the school's sports facilities.

Following the presentation, School Board President Thomas Miosky thanked the delegation for attending and congratulated the members on their work. "You are an asset to us, I feel, and I am sure the entire board feels that way," Miosky stated.

Completed accomplishments of the club Feigl cited included a pressbox and storage area in the football complex; purchase of a camera for filming athletic events and purchase of materials and installation of the soccer kickboard which was painted by student athletes.

The club also secured a donation from Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co. of Alton for a temporary concession stand and a scoreboard for soccer and baseball, purchased chain-link fencing materials to enclose the soccer and baseball fields which was installed by parents, athletes and coaches, and purchasing sod for those fields.

Other accomplishments include purchasing shirts for the cross-country track team, purchasing a medical case for all athletic events, purchasing a football reactor and giving support to the Lettermen's Club in improving the locker room and canteen area.

Current projects being undertaken include extending water service from the football pressbox about 600 to 800 feet to the soccer and baseball complex, extending the fencing from the baseball backdrop 25 feet on each side of the screen and building dugouts with drains and water for baseball.

Also securing possession of surplus temporary classrooms and converting them into concession, restroom and storage facilities at the baseball and soccer complex, coordinating off-street parking on Fehling Road and purchasing deep-freezers for the annual fund-raising fish fry.

Long-range plans are being prepared for the club to provide a pressbox for the baseball and soccer complex, beautification of the complex with trees and shrubs and preparing for lighting of those fields for night games.

The club requested the Board of Education consider providing additional bleacher seating for baseball, soccer, tennis and other sports and to work with the club in planning for restroom facilities to serve the baseball and soccer fields due to a large increase in spectator attendance at those games.

Feigl noted, "The accomplishments and plans of the Warrior Booster Club are the promotion of sports, sportsmanship and involvement of parents, athletes, coaches and interested citizens with the intent of becoming an asset to the community through a mutual effort, both monetarily and physical."

Braves close 2nd in meet

Coolidge Junior High School trackmen made a run at an 18-school junior high school invitational meet held during the weekend at Collinsville, but the Braves were edged 52-50 by Edwardsville.

Edwardsville was ahead 22-10 over Coolidge after five events, but the Braves battled back to deadlock the sevens at 42-42 with one event remaining, the mile relay. Edwardsville won the event and the meet as the Braves placed second in the relay.

Southwest Flashed finished third in the meet with 46 points. Belleville had 32, Prather 28, Grigsby and Alton West 24 each. Madison and Alton East 22 each, Alton North and Alton Central 20 each, Collinsville Webster 18, Cahokia and O'Fallon 16 each, Collinsville North 12, Alton East 10 and Highland eight. Lebanon failed to score.

Placing for Coolidge were: mile relay—Jim Hartline, Mike Niebur, Tim Phelps, Kevin Krowland 2nd; 880 relay—Bob Nikonowicz, Charles Wood, Craig Ely, Don Keeling 2nd; 500 yard—Mike Long 5th; mile—Prather pointmakers included: polevault—Doyle Miller 1st; Dan Hopkins 2nd; high jump—Richard Lupardus 3rd; 440 dash—Hopkins 4th.

For Grigsby: hurdles five—Joe Dean 3rd; hurdles 10—Dean 2nd, also put—Brendy Hefner 2nd; 400 dash—Mike Long 5th; mile—Glenn Thompson, Steve Gibson, Joe Bowler, Mike Root 3rd.

Cornell Wright earned all of Madison's points, taking first in the long jump and third in the 100 and 200 dashes.

South vs. Kahoks, Madison vs. North

The road leading to the 38th annual Illinois High School Association boys' baseball state finals June 2-3 at Peoria's Metten Field starts today with statewide district tournament competition, including a five-school meet at GCSS South's diamond on Fehling Road.

Warrior Coach Conrad "Babe" Champion's squad opens the tourney here at four o'clock today facing the Collinsville Kahoks.

On Saturday, Coach William "Bill" Campbell's Madison High Trojans will do battle with Coach Robert Stegmeyer's GCSS North Steeler nine at 10 a.m., followed by the Edwardsville Tigers at 1:30 p.m. and the victor of today's game in a 1 p.m. contest.

On Monday, winners of Saturday's contests will play 4 p.m. for the district title and a berth in the Edwardsville regional tourney May 14-16 along with winners of DuPont, Wood River and O'Fallon districts.

The regional winner at Edwardsville will go to sectional play May 21 and 23 at Springfield Griffin High.

South's Warriors and Edwardsville's Tigers are considered the pre-tournament favorites. South has 22 wins against six losses and the Tigers are 19-6.

Collinsville enters the tourney with a 21-1 record, North's Stealers are 12-14 and Madison's Trojans 4-13.

Both Stegmeyer and Campbell believe their clubs have excellent chances of making it into Monday's title clash.

"We'll be starting with Doug Rains on the mound," says Stegmeyer.

"He is an all-around athlete with a winning pitching record and batting."

Rains, junior, has a 4-2 record which includes one shutout, 37 strikeouts of opposing batters and an earned run average of 2.23.

Hitting safely 24 times in 84 trips to the plate, Rains is batting .286 and has 16-16 club in runs batted in with 16.

Ready for relief behind Rains will be Junior Terry Page, who also hits well.

Page has been on base often this season as North's leadoff man, collecting 16 hits and drawing 24 walks.

Junior Bruce Wright has the best batting average, .324, and has driven in 14 runs.

Senior Kevin Hayes has a .314 average and the most hits, 27; he has batted in 15 runs.

Freshman Bob Batley has 20 hits in 63 trips to the plate.

"Bob has become a consistent hitter," notes the coach. "His average has climbed from .207 a month ago to .317 now."

He and the Madison head coach both comment that their defenses got off to shaky starts this season, committing numerous errors, but both the North and Madison defenses have stabilized.

Trojan Tom Jones, a senior, will be the pitching choice. Campbell says, "He is 1-5 but has improved considerably, allowing only eight hits in his last 14 innings."

Senior Pete Pecurka, with a 3-2 record, winning hurler in Madison's last three victories, will back up Jones.

Relief hurler Ray Peoples, a sophomore, has the best batting average of .349 and 15 hits, with Jones averaging .317. Junior

Trojans 4th in meet

Coach Charles Steptoe's Trojan track and field team took fourth place Tuesday in the 11-school Roxana relay meet, where O'Fallon took top honors.

The Panthers chalked up 79 points to win, Bethalto had 62, Mascoutah 56, Madison 46, Wood River 38, Dupar 27, Jerseyville 25, Roxana 18, Triad 15 and Weslin of Trenton, seven. Waterloo High failed to earn points.

"We were knocked out of third place by the Indians in the final field event (triple jump)," recalls Steptoe.

Mascoutah athletes placed first and second in triple jump competition to edge ahead of Madison.

Trojan Alfred Crawford was third in the event. Team totals were calculated from combined efforts of the freshmen, sophomore and varsity competition held on Roxana's cinder field during a steady drizzle of rain.

Madison pointmakers included: (Fresh, soph) 880 relay — Eric Stanley, James Heard, Sylvester Collins, Earnest Davenport 1st (1:37.7, new meet record); (Varsity) 400 relay — Duane Bochtant, Collins, Heard, Davenport 1st (46.2 seconds); (Varsity) 880 relay — Bochtant, Collins, Heard, Davenport 1st (1:35.3); (Varsity) mile relay — Daryl Hampton, Bochtant, Mike Bartley, Davenport 2nd; triple jump — Crawford 3rd; long jump — Crawford 5th; high jump — Rodney Williams 5th; sprint medley — Bartley, Bochtant, Hampton, Cecil Cross 5th.

The Trojan coach voiced concern over the team's top sprinter, Marcus White, who is again suffering from a sidelining illness, and also announced that a triangular meet at Madison with Lebanon and Waterloo High slated for May 9 has been canceled.

Softball team needed
The Granite City Park District's 1977 softball program opened play this week, and a spokesman notes that the men's 3A league, which competes each Monday evening, is still in need of a team to round out a schedule for its seven participating squads.

Open to those aged 17 and over, the league has a $55 team registration fee along with a fee of $15 for each player who is a park district resident.

The park office at 877-3059 can be called prior to 6 p.m. tomorrow.

Triple auto racing program

Kenny Schrader of Baldwin, Mo., last weekend's late model stock car division feature race victory, will pull double-duty Saturday night during Tri-City Speedway's triple racing program, starting at seven o'clock.

Schrader will pilot his 1968 late model car of the half-mile oval and then switch to his midge racer to compete with 30 other drivers on the smaller track in the St. Louis Auto Racing Association sanctioned events.

The midge division portion of the program will mark the season opener for President Joe Finley's association.

Expected also among the field of midge auto drivers are last year's champion Jon Backlund of Kansas City, Mo., and three-time former champion and Indianapolis 500 race veteran Arnold Knepper of Belleville.

Three heat races and a feature event to include 24 cars will comprise the midge program. Sportsman class stock cars will share the smaller track with the midges.

Speed a major problem, GC aldermen are told

GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD Thurs. May 5, 1977 Page 16

Vehicular speed on Granite City streets is one of the most important problems confronting the citizens today, and should be put under tight control by police and city officials, Everett Worthen, 400

Maryville Road, told City Council members in a meeting last week.

Given permission to address the aldermen on a motion by Emerald Davies, alderman of the Seventh Ward, Worthen said that the speed of cars, motorcycles and other motor vehicles "is dangerous, particularly around the schools."

He said that although 30 miles per hour is the speed limit on most streets, "if you go down

Madison Avenue at 35 the cars pass you like you're standing still. The motor bikes and motorcycles roar like airplanes.

"It's getting so that people can't sleep in their houses along Maryville Road because of the traffic, so you can imagine what it must be like in other parts of the city along major streets and highways," Worthen continued.

"It's got to stop," he said, noting that "I'm sure our police and city officials can control the speed. When Maryville Road (widening project) is completed, it's going to be ridiculous."

Davies told the council that motorcycle and motorbike muffler noise is becoming a nuisance and that some program of checking them should be undertaken, but Alderman Ronald Coleman of the Seventh Ward said Davies the city has no ordinance controlling motorcycles.

although there is one requiring mufflers on cars.

Worthen suggested that "some kind of an item in the newspapers might result in more cooperation from youths with motorcycles to cut down the noise."

"We wouldn't catch them all but it would affect some," he said.

In another action, council members enacted an ordinance limiting the speed of public buses to 15 miles per hour in the 2100, 2200 and 2300 blocks of Woodlawn Avenue, although the proposal was protested by several aldermen who maintained that the council should not single out any one area for such a prohibition.

Alderman Roy Poulos said he thought the speed limit should be applied to the entire city, but others said this would slow traffic to such an extent the ordinance would do more harm than good.

Ronald Coleman, alderman of Ward Seven, said the restriction on Woodlawn Avenue was sought only as a safety measure. The structure of homes in the three-block stretch on Woodlawn, and did not believe it should be made effective in other parts of the city.

Mayor Paul Schuler suggested the ordinance could be referred back to the Ordinance Committee for further study, but the measure was approved on final passage as presented.

S. Illinois Builders honor C. D. Peters

C. D. Peters Construction Company, Granite City, has been awarded the Southern Illinois Builders' Construction Award for having worked throughout the year with an incident rate of less than 0.6, based on Occupational Safety and Health Administration statistics.

Not only did C. D. Peters have a better record than other SIBA members, but their record was better than the majority of construction firms throughout the United States, it was noted.

Also recognized for their efforts in accident prevention were G. H. Sternberg & Co., Granite City, and Gateway Drywall and Decorating, Granite City. These two firms also have outstanding accident prevention records as compared to similar firms throughout the United States, a spokesman said.

The awards were given at a dinner at which Dick Daley, safety director of Morrison-Knudsen Co., spoke. The address by Daley highlighted a program which included not only presentations and awards but also a discussion of recent changes in OSHA regulations on electrical requirements on jobsites.

Cardinal Construction Co., East St. Louis, was honored during the awards portion of the seminar with presentation of a special merit award by the Associated General Contractors of America.

Cardinal placed third among 2,000 contractors in the Municipal/Utilities Division in recording the best five-year safety record.

Tim Docter, MacIair Asphalt, Collinsville, chairman of the SIBA Safety Awards Committee said the purpose of SIBA safety awards is to provide meaningful recognition to construction firms which demonstrate outstanding accident prevention achievement.

The awards also serve as a medium for gathering injury and illness statistics which can be used as a guide in conducting future safety training programs and for safety talks on the job, and constant daily prodding by supervisors every time they see an unsafe act or condition.

Daley told the 300 contractors and members of supervision staffs that "today's construction supervisor must be knowledgeable, not only of the job plans and specifications but also of state and federal regulations concerning safety, fair employment opportunities, environment, products liability and education and welfare, to name a few."

Daley said there is no return on expenditures resulting from accidents. "They must be paid out of profits," he stressed.

Daley presented Morrison-Knudsen's production cost of accidents (PCA) system, which directly charges all costs resulting from accidents, theft, vandalism, property damage and insurance to a particular job.

Richard Osborn, Osborn Electric Co., St. Louis, chairman of the Codes and Standards Committee of the National Electrical Contractors Association, explained temporary wiring on construction projects.

Osborn outlined different approaches a contractor can take to be in compliance with new regulations.

He said receptacles on a two-wire, single-phase portable or vehicle-mounted generator rated not more than 5kw, where circuit conductors of the generator are insulated from the generator frame and all other grounded surfaces, need not be protected with ground-fault circuit interrupters.

The new requirements do not pertain to double-insulated tools and permanent wiring, provided that all extension cords meet OSHA standards.

Employers may elect to use either the assured grounding program or ground fault circuit interrupters or a combination of both.

A detailed description of the regulations and how to accomplish compliance with them are available from the Association upon request, it was noted.

Jim Eichholz of Fritz Electric Co., Belleville, gave a demonstration of various testing devices and their application, to be used in the assured grounding program. He also demonstrated use of the various types of ground fault circuit interrupters.

SIBA, a chapter of the AGC of America, has more than 800 member firms in 98 counties of Southern Illinois.

With headquarters in Belleville and a branch office in Marion, SIBA provides services to its members, who account for more than 80 per cent of the construction dollar volume in Southern Illinois.

Shrine-KC event May 15

The Edwardsville Knights of Columbus and the Edwardsville Shrine Club will co-sponsor their annual family-style dinner Sunday, May 15, at the Knights of Columbus Club on State Route 143 at the east city limits of Edwardsville.

All profits will be given to favorite charities of the two organizations. In the past five jointly-sponsored dinners, profits have gone to such institutions as the new Oliver Anderson Hospital at Macville, Shriners' Hospital for Crippled Children, Cardinal Glennon Hospital for Children in St. Louis and many others.

Serving of barbecued pork steaks and fried chicken, with the usual side dishes, will take place between 11:30 a.m. and 7 p.m. Patrons may eat as much as they wish. There will be continuous entertainment and a colorful tent to be set up on the club grounds.

Several dance bands, a Dixieland group and others are slated to perform during the day.

Diners may eat in the recently-enlarged, air-conditioned K. of C. Hall, or under the tent. There will be parking on the VFW Post 1299 grounds.

Driver faces two charges

Ronald Thomas, 34, of 3225 Carlson Ave., was charged with reckless driving and leaving the scene of an accident after his auto allegedly struck the parked car of David Goleaner, 210 Adams St., in front of Goleaner's home Monday.

Witnesses said Goleaner's auto was pushed about six to seven feet by the impact and by car which struck it continued across the curb and sidewalk and into the yard. It then backed up and drove from the scene.

Police followed a trail of antireeze from the broken radiator to 22nd Street and Madison Avenue where they found the auto and arrested Thomas. Thomas declined medical treatment then, but at 7:50 p.m. Monday he went to St. Elizabeth Hospital where he was treated for a cut to his lower lip and was released.

ROAD BLOCK FRIDAY

A road block to raise funds for the March of Dimes campaign will be conducted from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday at Sixth Street and Madison Avenue, Madison, by the Madison Junior Service Club.

Worker followed by men in sheets

Mrs. Alvester Salmond, wife of a Venice School District custodian, Eddie L. Salmond, said a series of harassing incidents in causing her family distress and concern, including "my husband being followed home at night by cars with men in them covered with white sheets and acting like they're the Klan or something."

"We, as a family, don't have to put up with things like this and we can get federal help to stop it," Mrs. Salmond said at a Venice Board of Education meeting last night. She was a board candidate last month.

Mrs. Salmond said, "We in Eagle Park aren't going to tolerate that type of thing."

"What assurance can you give for the safety of a school employee?" she asked the board. "We have been subjected to so many harassing phone calls that we had to change our phone number."

The superintendent (Robert N. Vickers) was incorrectly told my husband was taking home a school truck. He has two trucks of his own and doesn't need another one.

"Why are grown men hiding in the grass watching to see if a janitor is doing his job, instead of going up there to him and finding out?"

"What I want to know is why these complaints are being made about black janitors in the school district—why only them and not the others?"

"It's not that I want or expect you to do anything. I just want you to know what's happening in your own school district."

The board members heard Mrs. Salmond's remarks in virtual silence, punctuated by two questions and a statement by Supt. Vickers.

The administrator said he had been informed by a board member, Earl Hogan, of a complaint from a citizen alleging that Salmond had a school truck in his yard at home.

Board Member John Boushield interjected, "The school district doesn't have a truck."

Vickers said the information given a board member proved erroneous and it was determined that the vehicle in question was privately owned.

Supt. Vickers sought advice from Board Attorney Lawrence Hartman concerning Mrs. Salmond's statements.

After first giving a personal opinion on how to retaliate against perpetrators of such harassment, Hartman said his legal opinion would have to take precedence.

The lawyer advised finding out who was involved in the incidents and seeking counsel with the state's attorney's office for legal recourse.

Mrs. Salmond had indicated it was known who was responsible. Without naming anyone, she alleged that someone connected with the district may be involved.

Mrs. Verla Arnold also addressed the board, reminding members that earlier this year she had sought an investigation by the board into "injustices within the Venice school system and removal of certain details from students' records."

"It is near the end of the school year and these injustices still remain, she said, adding, "We are now going to seek federal help to get them corrected."

The Rev. Richard H. Bailey, board president, asked for spelling and his question was echoed by Supt. Vickers and other board members.

Supt. Vickers said he had asked Mrs. Arnold to meet with him to spell out "exactly what the problem is," but that the complainant had never come to his office.

"To be perfectly honest, I don't know what you mean by injustices. One time you mentioned that grades are given unfairly and we tried to explain how students are graded."

"Any student or parent may come to the school and see a student's record," he stressed.

Board members appeared at a loss to answer Mrs. Arnold, who indicated further action will be sought at another level.

Wheaddon named director of sanitary district

A. Wendell Wheaddon, an East St. Louis attorney, was appointed yesterday as executive director of the Metro-East Sanitary District.

The appointment, which becomes effective May 16, was made by the five-man board of trustees of the sanitary district which was established last December to replace the old East Side Levee and Sanitary District.

No salary was set for the post. Wheaddon formerly served as attorney for the levee district, leaving that post in December when the new sanitary district was formed.

He was the first chairman of the board of trustees of the State

Community College in East St. Louis.

Under the law establishing the sanitary district, the board of trustees is required to name an executive director who will be responsible to the board for administration and operation of the district.

The law says the director may hire and fire employees, prepare the district budget, complete financial reports for the board and enforce the district's "sanitary" ordinances and contracts. The law also requires the director be a registered professional engineer.

Wheaddon said he has worked in a series of engineering jobs between 1959 and 1968. He said he has worked as an engineer for the Illinois Division of Highways, for Iowa City, Iowa, for the California Division of Waterways and for Monsanto Chemical Co.

He established private practice as an attorney in 1968 and served as municipal attorney for a number of tax agencies.

Russell Robinson of Granite City, chairman of the board, said Wheaddon was chosen after four other candidates were interviewed.

Oh no, not of groceries, but cabbages and kins. What has cabbage to do with kings or happiness, you might ask? Well, I will say that this world of ours is based on economics, whether you are king or queen, you must have a well balanced exchequer to be free of worry (the enemy of happiness). Many kings have been deposed because of their inability to pay their soldiers. In those days, there were no super markets, that gave the maximum of values day after day. Today it is handier, more pleasant—you'll find it easier to pay your soldiers, if you shop with us.

Stabbing death held justified

Granite City police found Monday that a Madison County grand jury has decided that the stabbing death of Charles Thompson, 25, St. Louis, in the parking lot of Rico's II Lounge Dec. 8 has been ruled justifiable homicide.

Capt. William Condis, chief of detectives, said Tuesday.

Condis said the case was supposed to be taken before a grand jury in August 1976, but was delayed until September. The Madison County state's attorney's office said in September 1976 that the grand jury "returned no true bill," but there was no comment about the stabbing of Mr. Thompson.

Condis said he has checked into the status of the case several times since then and just found out Monday that the case has been cleared by a grand jury.

The ruling clears two youths of suspicion in the incident, during which Mr. Thompson was fatally stabbed and Robert Delgado, 22, St. Louis, sustained a serious gunshot wound to his abdomen.

Both had been released without charges pending consideration of the case before a grand jury. Evidence presented to the grand jury indicated Mr. Thompson may have fired a gun several times and threatened people in a wide area before he was stabbed, it was reported.

News notes

The Madison County Planning Commission, currently updating the official Madison County land use plan, will hold a public meeting at 7:30 p.m. Monday, May 9, at the City Hall in Granite City for the Quad-City area. Citizens will be able to comment on proposed land goals and policies, including residential, commercial, industrial and farm areas.

Branch offices by banks would be authorized, along with multi-bank holding companies, under bills approved 6-5 Tuesday by the Illinois Senate Finance and Credit Regulation Committee.

The Illinois Board of Higher Education has decided to continue pushing for a $125 million budget hike. Gov. James Thompson is urging a lesser increase of $50 million.

National Urban League Executive Director Vernon E. Jordan Jr. has endorsed formation of a separate group in Madison County instead of the present bi-county league.

AUDITIONS TOMORROW FOR SYMPHONY CHORUS

Auditions will be held Friday, May 6, between 5 p.m. and 8 p.m. at Powell Symphony Hall for the St. Louis Symphony Chorus, directed by Thomas Peck. Positions are available in all four voice categories — soprano, contralto, tenor and bass.

Singers accepted at these auditions will join the chorus beginning with the 1977-78 season. Next year, the chorus is scheduled to perform the following works with the orchestra: "Choral Fantasia" by Beethoven, "Mass in D" by Paine, "Symphony of Psalms" by Stravinsky and another major choral work to be announced. The chorus rehearses Tuesday evenings from 6:45 to 9:15 in Powell Symphony Hall. Barbara Liberman is accompanist.

GC man attends workshop meet

Charles Meyer, a member of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 2500 Delmar Ave., was one of more than 30 Christian Scientists participating in an all-day workshop called by Robert A. Johnson, Committee on Publication for the state of Illinois, held during the weekend at the Holiday Inn, Salem.

In keynote address entitled, "Ye Are the Salt of the Earth, or, What It Means to be a Christian," Johnson discussed some of the attitudes and practices of the early Christians, especially during the first two to three hundred years following the crucifixion and ascension of Christ Jesus.

Also featured at the meeting were short talks by Robert Brown of Paris and Velma Whitson of Marion who discussed the mission of the Committee on Publication. A panel of assistants, Dr. Percival Robertson from Elmhurst, Davidon from Marshall, Claude Eymann from Mulberry Grove and Roke Gusewelle of Edwardsville discussed the work and duties of an assistant committee on publication. Johnson served as moderator of the panel and all present participated in an open discussion.

Nameoki Methodist to honor mothers

A flower will be presented to each mother present at the 10:45 a.m. morning worship service this Sunday at the Nameoki United Methodist Church in recognition of Mother's Day. This day is also celebrated in the United Methodist Church as the Festival of the Christian Home.

The emphasis of the service will be upon the need of both church and home to combine their efforts to enrich the quality of life for all family members. The sermon topic will be, "Take It Home," according to the pastor, the Rev. William D. Fester.

In keeping with the theme of the christian home, four families will present their children for Christian baptism during the service. Both the Cherub Choir, consisting of small children, and the Chancel Choir will sing. The church is located on Pontoon Road at Primrose Avenue. Families are encouraged to come and worship together regularly, Rev. Fester added.

Kimberly Kramer is party honoree

Among the guests were the honoree's great-grandmother, Mrs. Grace Young, and her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pruitt, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Trgovich and George Doris.

Other guests were Mrs. Bonnie Shemwell, Mrs. Linda Broome and children, Tracey, Bobbie Jo, D. J. and Jamie; Gerald Freeman, Sandy Derner, Lou Trgovich, Joannite, Diane and Charles Doris; aunts and uncle of the honoree, and her brother and sister, Harvey and Becky Karner.

Mennerick receives St. George award

Reginald Mennerick, 2325 Clark Ave., was presented with the St. George Emblem of the Roman Catholic Church last week by Bishop Joseph A. McNicholas of Springfield.

The presentation took place at the Cathedral of Immaculate Conception in Springfield.

The St. George Emblem is the highest award given to Scout Leaders of the Roman Catholic faith. It is presented to adults who have a history of outstanding contribution to the spiritual development of Catholic youth in the program of the Boy Scouts of America.

Three local Boy Scouts were presented the Ad Altare Dei award in ceremonies by the Bishop just prior to Mennerick's presentation.

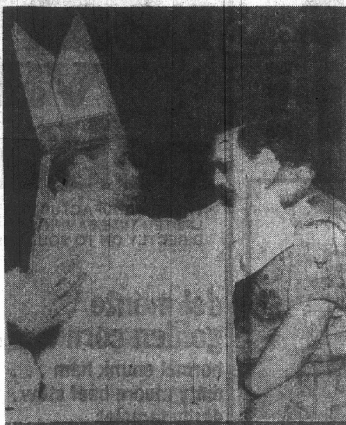

Scouts receiving the award are Tom Bush of Troop Five, sponsored by the Nameoki Methodist Church and Mark Gasparovic and Darin St. Ivany, both members of Troop 13, sponsored by St. Elizabeth Roman Catholic Church.

The young men spent over a year working on requirements of the church prior to receiving the award.

Mennerick is a Roman Catholic and a member of St. Elizabeth Parish. He is past president of the Holy Name Society, past president of the Church Council, past principal of the high school religion classes, chairman of Adult Confraternity, chairman of dedication ceremonies of the new St. Elizabeth convent.

Winifred Freedman in NW play

Winifred Freedman of Granite City has been selected as a member of the cast of Northwestern University's 40th annual Waa-Mu show, "Wild Onions." The original musical and comedy show this year pays tribute to, and pokes fun at, the city of Chicago, "Wild Onions" is the translation of Chicago, an Indian word.

Miss Freedman, a sophomore theater major in the School of Speech at Northwestern (Evanston), is a singer in the Waa-Mu cast. Her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Freedman, live at 2545 Cleveland Blvd.

About 200 students are involved in the show as singers, dancers, comedians, stage hands, musicians, choreographers, wardrobe assistants, lighting technicians and board members. Written entirely by students and alumni, it has been described as "the best college show in America."

Among the scenes in this year's show are a lyrical dissertation on the causes of the great Chicago fire, a patriotic look at "Al Capone's system of free enterprise," a date with the symphony on a Friday night, a flashback to the era of the big bands, waiting on a cold platform for an elevated train, and a visit to the first grade class of Dickey Daley, Mary O'Leary, Amelia Earhart, Cassius Clay, Alan Capone and other prominent Chicagoans, living and deceased. The show runs from May 1 through May 7 for eight performances.

Gold citation for Dr. Epstein

Dr. Harry Epstein of Granite City has received a "gold citation" for 50 years of work in the B'nai B'rith.

He is a past president, former financial secretary and was active in many positions of leadership in the organization. Now retired, Dr. Epstein was a practicing optometrist in Granite City for many years. A letter accompanying the citation stated: "On behalf of David M. Blumberg, president of B'nai B'rith International and the officers of District 6 of B'nai B'rith, we are forwarding to you this 50-year gold citation of membership."

"We appreciate you for your service in the area of leadership and as a former financial secretary and president," the letter concluded.

Hearing on flood hazard designation

As part of a federal requirement to protect against homes being constructed or expanded in flood hazard areas, the Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals will conduct a public hearing at 1 p.m. Monday, May 9, at the county courthouse in Edwardsville on amendments to the county zoning ordinance.

A spokesman for the county's zoning department said all counties, municipalities, villages and townships will be required to have ordinances by June 1 regulating construction in flood hazard areas or risk having all federal funds to that area cut off.

"These proposed amendments follow the federal guidelines as closely as possible and should not impose any severe restrictions or undue hardships on builders or homeowners," the spokesman said.

It was further explained the amendments implement federal guidelines on the makeup and types of buildings which may be constructed in hazard areas, assuring that buildings will be able to withstand a flood of a given height.

A tentative map has been prepared showing portions considered flood hazard areas due either to rivers or surface drainage.

Most areas covered by water during the last Mississippi River flood in 1973, including the Chouteau Island area, are marked as hazard areas. Other sections in the Quad-City area also are being considered subject to hazard on the tentative map.

A copy of the map will be

Mrs. Hughes dies at 78

Mrs. Evelyn M. Hughes, 78, of 3242 Princeton Drive, a lifelong resident of Granite City, died at 10:10 p.m. Tuesday at St. Elizabeth Hospital. She had been ill two weeks and hospitalized one week.

Mrs. Hughes was a charter member of the VFW Auxiliary and also belonged to the American Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors include her husband, Patrick C. Smith of Granite City; and Mrs. Edward (Alice) Hinz of Rocklin, Calif.; and nine grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

D. E. Hancock dies at 79

He had been a patient in the hospital two days.

Mr. Hancock was born in Panama and resided in Granite City 17 years.

He retired in 1960 from Granite City Steel after 20 years of service as a pipefitter.

His wife, Mrs. Lulu Hancock, died in 1962.

Burglary at Edna's Cafe

An undetermined amount of change was stolen from the juke box during a burglary at Edna's Cafe, 2455 Grand Ave., which was discovered at 5:30 a.m. Wednesday.

Glass in the rear door was broken and entry was believed gained by climbing through the opening. The juke box was pried open and an unsuccessful attempt was made to pry open the cigarette vending machine, which sustained damage.

Blood on the cigarette machine and ice cream box indicate a burglar may have cut himself. A kitchen knife and pepper shaker believed to have been used to break the glass of the vending machine were found on the floor.

A permit also will be required for "substantial improvement" as defined as repair, reconstruction or improvement of a structure, the cost of which exceeds 50 per cent of the market value before the work is started.

Standards are established for new buildings to be constructed, assuring their safety, including the requirement that the lowest level be at least two feet above the flood profile level on the map.

Separate standards are established to assure that mobile homes are anchored and secured against flooding.

Other portions of the proposed amendments control the storage of dangerous materials, types of subdivisions allowed, controls for improvements by public utilities and standards for levees and other flood control works.

The tentative map showing flood hazard areas is subject to revision after the public hearings and before the proposed zoning amendments are finalized.

city election in which Partney opposed Mayor Paul Schuler for reelection as mayor, was written that "hurt our business."

Partney said the letter instructed ambulance workers "not to call" Thomas, but to summon other area services in event help was needed. "I feel our agreement with the city should be observed," Partney said.

"I hope there was no political intent in this letter. Our main concern is not political, but to provide the ambulance service needed to serve the people."

Alderman Charles Douglas of the First Ward made a motion that the city abide by its agreement with Thomas Ambulance Service.

Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward who was chosen mayor protest in the absence of Mayor Schuler Tuesday night, told Douglas "there was no agreement."

Whitmer explained that the matter be referred to the council's Traffic Committee. The motion was approved.

Mildred Adams of 2625 Denver St. told the aldermen that the people in West Granite City were objecting to the stationing of one of the city's new ambulances at the West Granite City Fire Station, without it being used.

She said she understands that if the ambulance goes out, it is driven by a fireman, which leaves the fire truck unmanned.

"I know of one instance when an ambulance was called to the home of one of my neighbors. The ambulance from our station in West Granite stayed in the firehouse. They sent an ambulance from downtown. We believe the city should furnish a driver for that ambulance in our neighborhood."

Whitmer said the city will look into the complaint. Earl Mann, 2528 Palmer St., who was given an opportunity to speak on a motion by Douglas, objected to the city's action making the street superintendent's office an appointive post, noting that it "takes away the people's rights to elect their own officials."

Mann said he favors making even more of the city offices appointive posts. The only means of keeping public officials in check is by the people's elective rights, Mann added.

Lacie Kovachich, 2500 Edwards St., said the city should keep all of its elective offices "so that if we want to change them, that's fine. Put it on the ballot and vote it out." He noted that those who fought in this country's wars did so for a free election and a democracy. "What good is it if someone takes away our elective rights?" he asked.

Mrs. Fern Boker, 10 Bermuda Lane, wife of former alderman Tom Boker, told the council that she "takes exception" to the passage of the ordinance creating the appointive post of street superintendent. She asked the city to rescind the measure. "A dictatorship is not compatible to a democracy," she said.

Clarence McKel, 3019 Nanneoki Drive, criticized the bus service in the Quad-City area and suggested the mayor "look into some kind of a program by Bi-State Transit System to improve the service."

C. B. Woodward and Robert Harris also spoke during the meeting, opposing the elimination of the street superintendent's post as an elective office.

Appointees

insufficient to carry the motion because a rescinding action requires a two-thirds majority vote. A minimum of ten favorable votes was necessary to approve the motion.

Upon defeat of Douglas' motion, Alderman Schuman asked that City Attorney George Filcoff be instructed to bring into the next council session a brief "in writing" on the legality of the passage of the ordinance affecting the street superintendent's post. There was no opposition to this proposal.

At this point, Douglas proposed that the naming of council committees be done by nomination from the floor, and that selection of committee members by ballot.

under usual procedure council members meet and decide on the makeup of committees, depending upon their availability to serve and other factors, and that after the committees were agreed upon by council members, the mayor selects the chairman of each committee.

Douglas, however, proposed a motion that the council then select members of the finance committee by nominations from the floor.

Alderman Clyde Boyd of the Third Ward remarked that "We should do what we have done before ... get together and agree upon the committee makeup." Whitmer called for a roll call vote on Douglas' motion to name finance committee members. The motion was defeated by a vote of 8 to 5, with "no" votes cast by Whitmer, Boyd, Poulos, Parmley, Sprankle, Bowler, Morien and Baker. Voting "yes" were Douglas, Schuman, Decatur, Mrs. Norn and Bailey.

Boyd then moved that the council change the order of business to permit action on appointments of department heads and city employees, but Douglas protested and attempted to present a motion against the appointment procedure.

Whitmer pointed out that there was a motion on the floor. When Douglas protested again, Whitmer ruled him out of order. "I appeal your ruling," Douglas said.

"Appeal to whom?" Whitmer asked. "To the council. I have the right to appeal a ruling of the chair to the council members," Douglas said.

On a roll call vote on Douglas' appeal motion, "no" votes were cast by Boyd, Parmley, Poulos, Baker, Sprankle, Bowler, Morien and Whitmer—a vote of 8 to five that defeated the appeal.

A subsequent motion to present the mayor's list of appointments carried by an 8 to 5 vote.

Appointments of Ronald Veizer as chief of police, Nadine Harris as secretary to Veizer and Marian Henrich as police secretary, were approved unanimously without discussion.

When the name of Don Parente was presented for reappointment as fire chief, Alderman Decatur asked for the floor and told the aldermen, "It has been brought to my attention that some of the firemen at the fire house have to do work that others do not have to do. I have been by there when these men were washing trucks and window frames. I am not going to vote against this man, but I think this type of action is unfair."

Parente's reappointment was approved unanimously without further discussion.

The council approved the appointment of study Dallas as secretary to the detective bureau, and Flora Worthen as secretary to Mayor Schuler.

On presentation of the name of Ernest Eli for reappointment as city inspector, Douglas moved that the appointment be tabled until the mayor could submit a report on the qualifications of Eli. That motion lost 9 to 4.

Other appointments confirmed by the council without objections were Flare Warfield as assistant city inspector; William Dallas Jr., secretary to the inspection department and Cammie Skubish, air pollution investigator.

Another attempt to table an appointment was made by Douglas when the name of Tony Rusak, a city building inspector was presented.

Douglas attempted to fable the appointment of Rusak and asked that the mayor provide a report on the inspector's qualifications. The motion was defeated 9 to 4 in which Mrs. Norn joined the other aldermen in the negative vote.

On the negative vote. Voting in favor of tabling were Douglas, Schuman, Decatur and Bailey. Schuman asked the council: "Why is it that we can not get a report on the qualifications of an appointee. I can't vote on people I don't know and about whom I know nothing?"

Bowler joined Schuman in this particular issue. "How do we appear our people if we want a man removed from office when and if he is not doing his job?" he asked.

$375,000 church building authorized

A building permit and a special use permit were approved by the Madison City Council Tuesday night for St. Mary's Church of Madison for construction of a $375,000 multipurpose building next to the school on Tenth Street and Lee Avenue, Madison.

Construction of the building was scheduled to begin today. The parish center will include a 110x124-foot gymnasium area and a 50x71x12-foot section including a kitchen and shower facilities.

One meeting area will seat up to 600 persons and another up to 100 persons. The exterior will include a special white concrete block. The interior will include prefabricated structural wood.

The contractor is Ralph Korte Construction of Highland.

By a 9 to 1 vote, the council accepted the resignation of Stanley C. Skubish as a police commissioner, effective May 1.

Alderman Frank Dutko voted against accepting the resignation.

Alderman Dutko said, "I voted against Stan resigning because I feel he has done a job and should stay on as a commissioner. He gave no reason for his resignation, and I think we should know why he is quitting."

Mayor Mike Skyles appointed Joseph Besserman to replace Skubish. The council concurred by a unanimous vote.

The council also approved the mayor's appointment of Sammy Dymas as the city recreation director, replacing Joyce Carlson, who resigned.

The mayor also made the following aldermanic committee appointments with the first named as chairman:

Finance—Third Ward Alderman Thomas Gordon, Aldermen R. Don Reeves, and Third Ward Alderman Ronald Grzywacz.

Streets and alleys—Fourth Ward Alderman Christ Costoff, Grzywacz, Second Ward Alderman Donald Broyles, and Fifth Ward Alderman Booker Walton.

Police—Broyles, Reeves, Costoff and Ashford.

Ordinance—Second Ward Alderman Frank Dutko, Gordon, Broyles, and Fifth Ward Alderman Donald Garrett.

Purchasing—Reeves, Broyles, Grzywacz and Gordon.

Fire, light and water—Walton, Garrett, Dutko and Ashford.

Public grounds and buildings—Fourth Ward Alderman Mike Sikora, Grzywacz, Reeves and Ashford.

Health—Dutko, Broyles, Ashford and Gordon.

Claims—Garrett, Walton, Sikora, Ashford and Gordon.

Permits—Ashford, Walton, Sikora and Garrett.

Legislative—Grzywacz, Garrett and Dutko.

Landfill and available ground—Garrett, Walton, Sikora and Dutko.

Chain of rocks bridge—Grzywacz, Sikora, Garrett and Broyles.

Industrial park—Broyles, Costoff, Reeves, Dutko and Gordon.

Alderman Grzywacz then said, "Mr. Mayor the new parking signs around the 12th street ball diamond are down and these need to be replaced before someone is hit by a car when they are running after a ball. One more thing, I saw ice cream vending cart on Iowa street today with a group of young kids running after it and this is dangerous, and I believe against the law."

Mayor Skyles referred the problem to the street and parking departments for action.

Mayor Skyles said, "Gen tlemen between now and the next two weeks I will be meeting with various committees as I have several new ideas I want to discuss with the aldermen. I feel that even though we have made some real gains in the past, there is a lot we can do for the citizens and the city. In two years, Madison will be the nicest looking city in the area."

Administrators will trade jobs

At the request of the two administrators involved, the Granite City Board of Education agreed Tuesday night to trade the administrative posts of the district's high school administrative aide, Allen R. Kennerly, and the Granite City High School South assistant principal, Alfred Leavell.

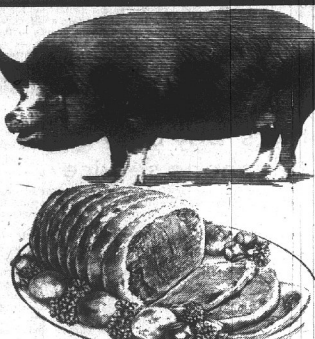

As a money-saving move, the board also voted to reduce the South assistant principal post from a 12-month year position to a 10-month job.

B. J. Davis, superintendent of schools, recommended that the trade be approved, noting, "I feel both men are able to handle the new assignments well, and this gives us an opportunity to reduce our administrative staff by one administrator for two months each year."

Allegation lodged against drug team

Granite City police are investigating an allegation by a man arrested in Friday's series of drug arrests in this area that a man's gold ring with a rhinestone and three diamonds in it was discovered missing from a nightstand next to his bed a short time after he was arrested.

Michael Gracy, 1819 Spruce St., alleged the ring disappeared about the time a team of several officers from the Granite City police and the Metropolitan Enforcement Group of Southwestern Illinois (MEGSI) got him out of bed to serve an arrest warrant on him alleging unlawful delivery of a controlled substance.

not required under the contract. A committee of school principals and administrators was formed to study new bids for the 1977-78 school year and rated the quality of photo samples received from seven photo services ranking Hollywood Andrews and Rembrandt Studios in St. Louis the highest in quality.

After studying the bids, the committee recommended that Hollywood Andrews be awarded the contract for photo services to both high schools, and the contract for photography for the elementary and junior high schools be awarded to the Delmar Studios, on the basis of a lower bid price.

Delmar Studios was ranked third by the committee on quality of the sample photos studied.

After discussing the suggestion of the committee, the board voted to award the overall contract for all the schools to Hollywood Andrews "on the basis of exceptional past service," a spokesman said.

Elementary school and junior high school portrait packages will cost $3 each and the school will receive a 30-cent commission per packet to be used for the yearbook. The cost is the same as currently charged.

Senior high underclass packages will cost $2.50 with 50 cents commission on each donated to the school. Portraits in an 8 inch by 10 inch portrait in an 8 inch folder will cost $11.95, four 5 by 7 inch photos in 8 inch folders will cost $15.95, and 24 wallet-sized photos will cost $8.95.

The cost of the senior portraits rises $1 for an 8 by 10 inch portrait, $2.50 more for four 5 by 7 inch portraits and $1 for the 24 wallet-sized photos. Underclassmen packets will cost 50 cents more than last year.

PROCLAIM LAW AND ORDER WEEK. Area mayors greet Elks officers at the City Hall in Granite City and sign a proclamation designating the week of May 9 as Law and Order Week in the Quad Cities. The week is set aside each year to recognize and show appreciation to area law enforcement officers and their departments for services rendered throughout the year. Seated, left to right, are E. David Whitsell, chairman of the Elks' Law and Order Committee and special dinner; Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler; and Harold Rush, Elks leading knight and finance chairman. Standing are Floyd David Moss, mayor of Pontoon Beach, and Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison. The dinner, launching the week, is scheduled at 6:30 p.m. Monday, May 9, at Charlie's Restaurant. Tickets are available at Elks Lodge 1063.

Law and Order banquet to honor area police forces

By VALERIE EVENDEN
Press-Record Staff Writer

Granite City Elks Lodge 1063 will sponsor its seventh annual Law and Order Day banquet Monday evening, May 9, at Charlie's Restaurant.

Cocktails will be served at a cash bar, starting at 6:30 p.m. Monday, with dinner to commence at 7:30 p.m.

Principal speaker will be Illinois Lieutenant Governor Dave O'Neal, former sheriff of St. Clair County.

Dinner tickets presently are available, costing $10 each, at Granite City Elks Lodge, 1324 Niedringhaus Ave., on a first come, first serve basis.

A prime rib dinner will be served, according to Harry Taylor, Elks Lodge 1063 exalted ruler.

The banquet is arranged each spring by the Granite City Elks to recognize the achievements and services of area law enforcement officers and their individual departments.

Officers will attend representing the Granite City Madison, Venice and Pontoon Beach police departments, together with the Madison County Sheriff's Office and the Illinois State Police.

tertaining all police officers in the area at a steak dinner at the Elks Lodge, planned later in May.

Taylor said that E. David Whitsell, chairman of the Elks Law and Order Committee, again is serving as dinner chairman.

The week of May 9, 1977, has been designated as Law and Order Week in a proclamation signed by Mayor Paul Schuler of Granite City, Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk, Venice Mayor William "Mike" Ebersold and Mayor Floyd David Moss of Pontoon Beach.

The signing took place last week at the City Hall in Granite City.

Gov. O'Neal, a Republican, served as sheriff of Democratic-prone St. Clair County for two terms.

He regards himself primarily as an administrator, rather than a police officer, but he was considered highly qualified as sheriff, operating a department with 133 employees on a budget of more than $1 million.

A native of Belleville, Lt. Gov. O'Neal, 39, is a graduate of St. Louis College of Pharmacy and formerly operated the Western Pharmacy in Belleville.

He served as vice president of B&D Land Corp. and held a partnership in Walto Associates, a real estate holding firm. He is a licensed pharmacist and real estate broker.

In 1975, Lt. Gov. O'Neal was named "Outstanding Young Republican of the Nation." Four years earlier, he had been chosen "Outstanding Young Republican of Illinois."

As St. Clair County sheriff, Lt. Gov. O'Neal was responsible for establishing a merit hiring system in his department and for increasing state and federal law enforcement grants to the county police force.

The public is invited to attend the May 9 dinner and show "appreciation to our law enforcement officers," Whitsell said.

Mothers' Day busy one for telephone service

Mom can relax and enjoy Mother's Day on Sunday, May 8.

But there's no rest for Ma Bell, because Mother's Day is a busy day for long distance telephone calls, according to K. L. Evers, Granite City district manager of Illinois Bell.

To make sure all those greetings get through, Illinois Bell and American Telephone & Telegraph Company's Long Lines department will have extra employees on duty Sunday.

The company expects to process about three million long distance calls through its Illinois switching centers Sunday. The nationwide long distance network will handle an estimated 13.5 million interstate calls on Mother's Day. And this doesn't include the millions of local calls that will make Mom happy.

Evers said approximately 1,329 operators — many of them mothers themselves — will be on hand to assist Illinois callers with an estimated 200,000 long distance calls. However, the number of operator-assisted calls has been decreasing as more callers dial direct.

Illinois Bell expects another surge of long distance calling on Tuesday, May 10, Mexican Mother's Day.

Evers said 22 employees — compared to only two on an average Sunday — will spend Mother's Day in the network operations center at 10 S. Canal St., Chicago.

These "telephone traffic cops" will guide the flow of long distance calls with the help of lighted status boards and computerized equipment, selecting alternate circuits to avoid traffic jams.

Evers said the job of managing telephone traffic is more complicated on Mother's Day because calling patterns change on holidays. On a normal business day, long distance calling is heaviest between big cities. But on Mother's Day, more people call to and from suburbs, small towns and rural areas.

"As an example, we have plenty of circuits between Chicago and New York," Evers said, "but we may have to route calls halfway across the country to get them from Granite City to Tallahassee, Fla., without delay."

Since most people will be talking longer than usual, some calls may not go through on the first attempt.

If that happens to you, Illinois Bell advises waiting a few minutes before you try again. It's a good idea to call in mid-afternoon when the volume of calls is lighter.

Customers can save time if they obtain the number they will be calling before Sunday. And direct dialing will save both time and money. Dial-it-yourself rates are lower than charges for operator-assisted calls.

Long distance rates for direct-dial calls are lowest from 11 p.m. Friday to 5 p.m. Sunday, when the night and weekend rate applies to both interstate calls and long distance calls within Illinois.

Explorers to train in life-saving techniques

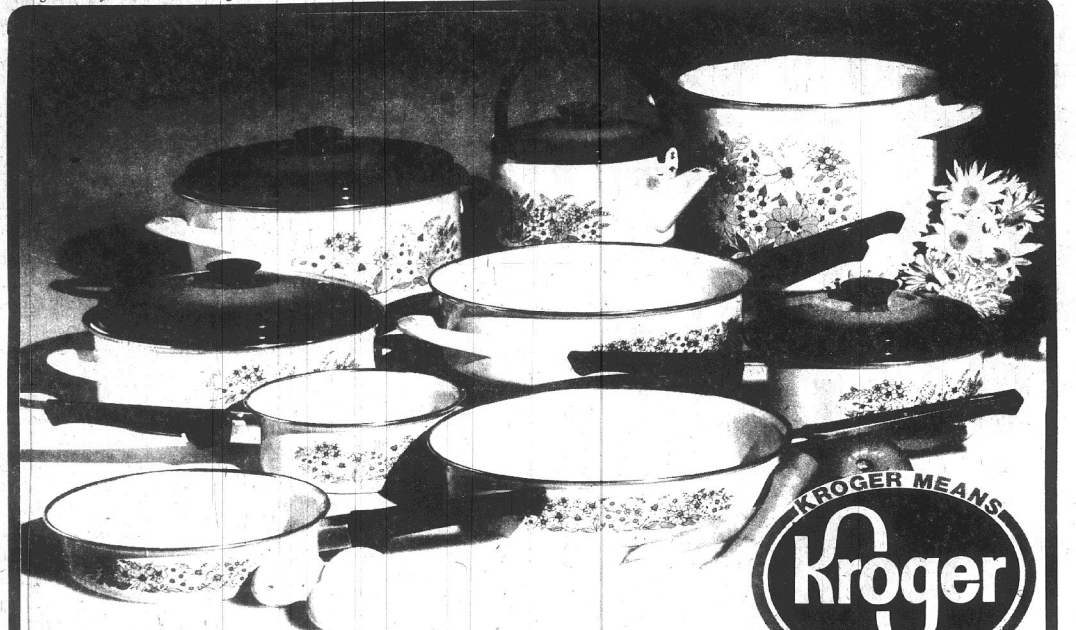

Area Explorers will be trained in Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation and the Heimlich maneuver, two life-saving techniques for heart and choking victims.

The training will take place Saturday at the Carpenters' building, 901 West Chain of Rocks Road, from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m.

Steve Missey, area trauma coordinator, will head the training staff.

Arrangements for the training have been made by Frank Mercer, Officer Glenn Wright, Larry Miller, Dr. Thomas Layloff and Shay Davis, all members of the Council Exploring Committee. Members of Granite City Police Post 1633 are handling the arrangements.

Post advisers are being encouraged to make a special effort to have all members of their posts attend, according to Mercer.

Ad effective thru Saturday Night, June 25, 1977.

Peggy Moore named Secretary of Year

Mrs. Peggy Moore was named "Secretary of the Year" (SOTY) at the Tri-Cities Chapter of the National Secretaries Association International, annual secretaries week dinner, held at Sunset Hills Country Club.

The selection of the "SOTY" is determined by the accumulation of points earned through participation in the organization.

Mrs. Moore currently serves as ways and means chairman and is also the sponsor for the Madison High School Future Secretaries Association.

In February, Mrs. Moore was the recipient of the LACE Award, selected by popular vote of the members for a person they judge to have the following requirements: Liked by all members; Active in all chapter activities; Cooperative in all chapter's undertakings, and Enthusiasm.

The honoree resides with her husband, Al, at 2222 Terminal Ave. She was employed as secretary to the factory manager at Nesco Steel Barrel Co. for 18 years and then as secretary to the president of Metal Services.

Mrs. Moore retired two years ago. She and her husband are parents of a son, Gary who resides in Smithboro, Ill., with his wife, Susan. Mrs. Moore has been a member of the Tri-Cities Chapter since 1965.

Chapter President Mrs. Gail L. Foley, Certified Professional Secretary (CPS), welcomed the 55 people who attended the event in honor of the secretarial profession and introduced special guests seated at the main table. Mistress of ceremonies was Mrs. Charles Vunovic, CPS.

Mrs. Helen Christich gave the invocation preceding the dinner.

Entertainment for the evening was provided by the Sweet Adelines barbershop quartet of Collinsville.

Guest speaker was W. R. "Bill" Cheek, an accomplished speaker and nationally recognized leader in the business world. In 1941 he joined the Ralston Purina Co., as a sales trainee and advanced to vice-president and director of sales, nationally, for Ralston Purina's Chow Division. In this capacity he directed a sales force of over 500 people.

After 35 years with company, Mr. Cheek retired to start his own management consulting business and has dedicated his business life to helping students and people of all ages, reach their potential.

On Feb. 2, 1977, he was named an honorary alumnus of the University of Missouri in recognition of his work with students on a national basis.

The topic of his talk was "Wheel of Fortune" in which he demonstrated the importance of visual aids in the importance of a positive attitude.

Recognition of the chapter's past "houses of the year" award was accorded to Mrs. Mary Sedekum, Elroy Rule, Norman LeTourneau, Paul Hatfield and Venice Mayor William Eberhardt.

YMCA Seniors installation

Mrs. Lucille Pierce was installed as president of the YMCA Senior Citizen Club, in ceremonies conducted at the "Y" during the weekend by Mrs. Ruby Corbett, president of the Golden Age Circle Club.

Other officers to serve for the ensuing year are Mae Findley, vice-president; Ann Korus, treasurer; Elsie Stagg, secretary; Naomi Ronger, financial secretary; Augusta Lampe, quilt chairman and Evelyn Stark, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Augusta Pender, Chaplain, gave the Lord's Prayer and the members recited the pledge to the flag. Also named to serve as committee chairmen were Mrs. Blanche Scantling, show case chairman; Mrs. Pender, Chaplain and Mrs. Carmen Allen, greeter.

The president presented a floral centerpiece, provided by Willis Florist, to Mabel Wiggins. She noted appreciation to Perdy's Florist Shop for flowers he furnished for the officers.

Past secretaries of the year were presented with a red rose, the chapter flower. Those honored were Mrs. Charles Vunovic, Mrs. Sedekum, Miss Jane Davis, Miss T. W. Edmonds, Mrs. Sunshine Scruggs, Mrs. Mary Gain, Mrs. Foley, Mrs. Salley Gracey, Mrs. Joyce Savich and Mrs. Lane Randolph.

Pete Hanson the creator of "Lolly" the secretary in the comic strip which appears in many newspapers, sent an original drawing to the chapter in observance of Secretaries Week. This drawing was presented to Joseph Hassler as the evening prize.

Festivities for the week concluded with breakfast in the home of Mrs. Salley Gracey.

Those who served on the planning committee for the week long activities were Miss Jane Davis and Mrs. Gracey, co-chairmen and Mrs. Helen Christich, Mrs. Mary Gain, Mrs. Louise Henning, Mrs. Blanche Scantling and Mrs. Charles Vunovic.

Hospital's week to be a busy one

May 8-14, National Hospital Week, will be a time for St. Elizabeth Hospital to spotlight the services it provides all year.

"This year's theme, 'We Put the Care in Health Care,' salutes hospital people for preserving the old-fashioned quality of caring while providing the most modern medical treatment," Sister Mary Thomas, president, said today.

On Mother's Day, Sunday, May 8, the mother of the first baby born that day will receive flowers and a layette. The oldest male and female patients will be gifted with planters.

On Monday morning, a "coffee" will be held for staff physicians. In the late afternoon, Bishop Joseph McNicholas of the Springfield Diocese will officiate at a Mass.

Area clergymen will congregate at St. Elizabeth's annual ministers' breakfast on Tuesday of National Hospital Week.

From 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday, May 10, blood pressure and diabetes clinics will be conducted. The public is invited. Information will be available during that time on arthritis, glaucoma and eye cell. Films dealing with respiratory problems also will be shown.

A visit from Winnie the Pooh and a doctor's office staff luncheon on Friday will close the 1977 Hospital Week celebration.

National Hospital Week is an annual observance sponsored by the American Hospital Association and its 7,000 members to give people an opportunity to learn more about the hospital in their community.

BODY SCANNER DELIVERED. Workmen unload one component of the Computer Axial Tomography System (CAT Scanner) at St. Elizabeth Hospital Tuesday morning. The $500,000 body scanner is one of three in the St. Louis area. The scanner will be located on the ground floor of the Doctor's Wing of the hospital in the radiology department. It will allow earlier and more accurate diagnosis of various body disorders with the use of minimal amounts of radiation this being much safer for the patient. The system also allows quicker results which should cut patient waiting time. In the background, still in the truck is another piece of the system still to be unloaded. The unit will take from four to six weeks to install and calibrate before being put into use.

22 churches represented at luncheon

"Spring Around the World" was the theme of the Church Women United's representatives luncheon held last week at Central Christian Church, which honored ministers from Quad-Cities churches.

Mrs. Margie Pennell, president, welcomed the group and the Rev. Dennis Rutledge, pastor of Central Christian Church, extended greetings.

In keeping with the theme, spring flowers decorated the walls. The decorations were made by second grade pupils in Mrs. Linda Reek's class at Parkview School. It was announced by Mrs. Ellen Wilson and Mrs. Judy Russell, luncheon co-chairmen.

Twenty-two area churches were represented at the event and eight ministers and priests were honored as special guests.

Funds still are needed to help purchase items for the CWU Layette for the Newborn project, it was reported. Several organizations have agreed to donate Eagle and Top Value stamps as their contribution.

Mrs. Alice Hunsinger said volunteers also are being sought to aid in the Friends in Learning grade school project.

Mrs. Grace Lensing, Senior Service chairman, noted that birthday parties are being given each month at Colonial Haven Nursing Homes by various church groups.

Donations of bakery goods are needed, plus the use of a piano, she said. Outings for senior residents are being planned.

Mrs. Mona Corzilius, who is heading a new undertaking by the CWU — Legislative Concerns for World Hunger — said goals of the group include — exerting meaningful influence on public affairs, effectively relating moral values to national issues and registering such opinions with persons making the decisions before such decisions are finalized.

A newly formed Bible study group will meet for the next four weeks, Mrs. Marion Pierson informed the women.

Mrs. Helen Baran, CWU blood drive chairman introduced Mrs. Shirley Gitchie from the Bi-State Red Cross office in St. Louis, who awarded commendation certificates to various churches who have participated in the blood program.

Scanner to be ready in June

A long-awaited computerized axial tomography system — CAT scanner — arrived at St. Elizabeth Hospital on Tuesday. The system is a completely new diagnostic x-ray technique which — by means of a computer analysis — generates much more information than conventional x-ray techniques. The new system will allow the staff to depict deep brain and organ structure with only minimal amounts of radiation and without the injection of dyes into the body.

ERRORS HURT COUGARS IN DIVIDING TWINBILLS

It can be a crazy game—baseball, that is. Take those two games that Coach Roy E. Lee's Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Cougars played at Springfield, Mo., Tuesday against the Southwest Missouri State University Bears.

In the opener, the Cougars romped to a 9-1 victory behind the four-hit pitching of their senior righthander, Sam Pastrovich, and the big bats of Don Eberlin, Don Broadway and Mike Brown. Pastrovich, who has had some amazing streaks of foul luck, saw his teammates turn two double plays. But in the second game, the Cougars' southpaw from Granite City, Steve Ashby, was again the victim of bad defensive play and was charged with the 11-3 loss. The Cougars are now averaging a little more than three errors a game.

Anthony Vlasak dies at home

Anthony Vlasak, 66, of 2102 Lee Ave., was found dead in his home at 9:15 a.m. Tuesday. There were indications he may have suffered a heart attack within the previous three days. A neighbor, Ernie Stevens, 2106 Lee, became concerned when he noticed Mr. Vlasak's lawnmower in the cur yard, since Mr. Vlasak normally returned the mower to his basement after using it.

Stevens investigated and through a window saw Mr. Vlasak lying face down on the kitchen floor. He called police who broke into the home and said there were no signs of life. Madison County Deputy Coroner Ed Starnberg pronounced Mr. Vlasak dead at the scene. It was reported bottles of heart medicine prescribed for Mr. Vlasak were on a counter near his body. ## Former GC woman killed in auto crash

Mrs. Nancy J. Gutzler, 28, of Highland, a former Granite City resident, was injured fatally in a three-vehicle accident on Route 160 about five miles south of Highland at 6:40 a.m. Wednesday. She was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Joseph's Hospital, Highland, at 6:55 a.m. Wednesday.

Illinois state troopers reported Mrs. Gutzler's auto was southbound in fog when the accident occurred. The northbound auto of Lavern Thuenemann, Trenton, was passing the northbound tractor-trailer of Ronald Gerstner, Trenton, when Mr. Thuenemann's auto was seen approaching Mrs. Gutzler's auto head-on.

Evidence indicated Mrs. Gutzler's auto went off the road onto the right shoulder, but then went out of control, skidded back onto the southbound lane, struck Thuenemann's auto on the left side and then skidded into the northbound lane where it was struck broadside by the tractor-trailer.

Survivors include her husband, Thomas J. Gutzler, a 4-year-old son, Christopher Matthew Gutzler; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred (Helen) Graham of Highland, formerly of Granite City; a sister, Miss Barbara Graham of Highland, and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shea of Belleville.

Funeral services will be at 10 a.m. Friday, May 6, at St. Paul

Court rules GC owes $28,961 to disabled fireman

The Granite City Council Tuesday night requested its fire and water committee to consider whether or not to appeal a circuit court order which awarded $28,961 in retroactive sick leave benefits and back pay to Robert Harris, a former Granite City fireman.

The court ruled that Harris, who retired on disability in 1972, was injured in the course of his work and qualified for full salary benefits under the city's old sick leave agreement, which has since been modified.

Since his retirement, he has received $499 per month disability pension while he should have been receiving his regular salary of $1,024, the court ruled.

The city's argument that the old sick leave ordinance was repealed prior to Harris' retirement was overruled by Associate Judge John W. Dry, who held that he was disabled before that date and therefore qualified for benefits under the old agreement.

Irvin C. Slate Jr., assistant city attorney, reviewed the case with the council Tuesday night and noted they have until May 20 to either pay the judgment or file an appeal.

Alderman Earl Baker, chairman of the fire and water committee, recommended that his committee investigate and the council concurred.

Memory of PATRICK M. O'BRIEN (SHINE) May 8, 1976

Nothing could take away, Fond memories that will always stay.

His twenty years had many happy days

He made me smile, when sad, "Shine" was no angel, just a normal lad.

He's with me twenty-four hours a day.

In Loving Memory of JAMES D. JACKSON April 5, 1935 to May 4, 1966

Always With Us: A day is never ended and... a night never goes by... that our thoughts are not of you. Here is the reason why... You are deep down inside our hearts, where you will always stay, and so it is we think of you throughout each night and day. The happy moments that we know in years now said and done, light our way when lonely clouds tend to hide the sun, each kiss and heavenly embrace, our walks in fields of clover are with us almost constantly, though they are long since over, it's wrong to live in memory of this we are aware, yet every passing hour, we seem to wander there, for you are always with us, deep down inside our hearts, and so it is that time or space, cannot keep us apart!

Sadly missed by Wife and Children 33 5 5

Memory of Our Dear Mother M. O'BRIEN (SHINE) May 8, 1976

A sisters memories of her brother

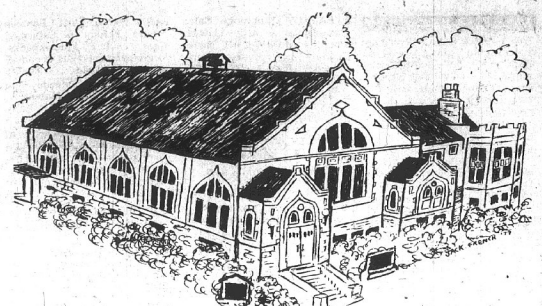

Taken away young, and in his prime.

Fondness and love, felt for no other.

Nothing can surpass the short time.

The face and laughter - with "Shine"

Community Heights church plans building program and barbecue

The Men's Fellowship group at Community Heights Assembly of God Church, located at Faith and Buxton avenues, will sponsor a barbecue dinner Saturday from 10 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. at the church.

The public is invited to attend and carry-outs will be available, the Rev. Jeff Smith, pastor, announced.

A plate lunch, consisting of a pork steak, choice of two vegetables and bread will be prepared for $1.75 a plate, or a barbecue sandwich will be available for $1 each.

Officers of the Men's Fellowship are Charles "Lanzo" Patterson, president; Donn Boone, vice-president; and Al Lewis, secretary-treasurer.

The Rev. Smith also announced the Community Heights Assembly of God congregation has finalized the purchase of two lots, situated at the corner of Faith and Marshall avenues.

Future plans call for construction of a multi-purpose building on the property, the Rev. Smith said.

The new facilities will provide space for Sunday school classes, Royal Rangers, Missionettes, Men's Fellowship, C. A.'s and Women's Missionary meetings and together with a recreational area for basketball and volleyball, and a kitchen and office.

Additionally, the church recently purchased a 66-passenger bus to make transportation available for attendance at church services, the minister said.

Persons needing a ride to the church are invited to call 876-4728, or 877-4435, the Rev. Smith advised.

Bridick takes over as chief

Donald L. Bridick assumed the duties of chief of police in Madison on Monday, and his day started about 6:15 a.m.

Early morning, a close friend of the chief called him at home to remind me to go to work," Bridick said. "My friend didn't want me to be late. Anyway, he got a surprise when he found out I was already up and showered."

When asked what his first day was like, Bridick commented, "Well it was busy. Actually it started when my wife Karen and I were having breakfast. We just speculated on what the day's events would bring."

"I drove around town from about 7:45 a.m. until 8:15 a.m., when I went into the police station. I spent a good part of the morning going through the chief's desk and looking over files."

"I worked on the Illinois Uniform Crime report for April and that thing takes about five hours. I don't remember off-hand and just what the figures show, although I do know we had a decrease in crime over April last year."

"I spent some time talking to our auxiliary police officers who need to get their hands renewed before they can have their commissions approved."

"In the afternoon, I met with Mayor Mike Sasyk and we discussed the operation of the department and things he and I would like to see accomplished," Bridick said.

After about a 10 and a half-hour day, the new chief went home.

Actually the chief worked on Sunday. After attending mass, he spent the better part of Sunday working in his office.

In regards to future plans, Chief Bridick said, "We have a good department with some fine police officers, but like anything else, improvements can be made. I intend to meet in the very near future with the members of the department, police commissioners and aldermen as groups and as individuals to seek their ideas on how we can improve police services to the people of Madison."

"Things won't change overnight, but I am sure everyone will be pleased as things do change. Everyone has a different method of operation and mine will be different than that of Chief Dutko (Frank Dutko who retired last week)."

"The only thing I can truly say is that I will do my best to administer an effective and efficient department and that I will welcome any ideas anyone may have as to how we, as a police department, can better serve the people of Madison in our efforts," Bridick concluded.

ST. LOUIS UNIVERSITY COMMENCEMENT MAY 14

St. Louis University will hold commencement ceremonies for 1,350 students at 10 a.m. May 14 in Kiel Auditorium. The conferral of degrees will bring the total number of degrees awarded during the 1976-77 academic year to about 2,400. The Rev. Daniel C. O'Connell, S.J., university president, will confer the degrees and address the graduates. Cardinal John Joseph Carberry will present his greetings. Members of the class of 1927, who will be celebrating their golden reunion, will be recognized at the ceremonies. The commencement will highlight the university's 150th academic year.

B, TA licenses at 3 banks in June

For the first time in state history, a limited number of Illinois financial institutions will sell two classifications of 1977-78 fiscal-year plates over the counter, Secretary of State Alan J. Dixon announced today.

Counter sales will start Wednesday, June 1, the first day new plates may be legally displayed on second division vehicles. Participating are the First Granite City National Bank, Granite City Trust and Savings Bank and First National Bank in Madison.

Dixon emphasized that only "B" class trailer plates and "TA" trailer plates may be purchased at the 220 participating banks, 20 savings and loan associations and approximately 600 currency exchanges.

Over-the-counter sales for all classes of fiscal year plates including the "B" and "TA" plates, also will go on sale over the counter at the three Motor Vehicle Service facilities in Chicago and at the Centennial Building and Dirksen Parkway facility in Springfield. Drive-in windows will be available at the Dirksen location.

Trucks which qualify for "B" plates are vehicles with a gross weight of 3,001 to 8,000 pounds, including the vehicle and maximum load. Fee is $30.

"TA" plates are limited to a gross weight of 3,000 pounds or less, including the vehicle and maximum load.

"We believe that the financial institutions participating in this program will give extra convenience to fiscal year plate buyers throughout most of our state," Dixon said.

PLAQUE OF RECOGNITION is presented to Henry Bieniecki, right, former member and chairman of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Board for ten years, by Mayor Paul Schuler. In presenting the plaque at last week's City Council meeting, Schuler said Bieniecki deserved "credit and recognition for handling a difficult job with dedication." Bieniecki was an original member of the clean air board established in 1965 and served eight years as chairman. He left the board in August 1976.

Exhibit of architecture

An exhibit sponsored by the Historic American Buildings Survey and the Smithsonian Institution showing early Chicago architecture will be presented in the University Center at SIUE April 29 to May 28.

Brought to SIUE by the University Center Board Visual Arts Committee, the exhibition will present a selection of photographs and measured drawings of structures that attained importance in the Chicago school of architecture between 1880 to 1910.

It traces the school's development from the early pragmatic design for commercial buildings to the work of Louis Sullivan and to the development of domestic "Prairie Houses" by Frank Lloyd Wright and his followers. Included are photographs and drawings showing the auditorium by Adler and Sullivan.

Built between 1887 and 1889, the auditorium, at the time of its construction, was considered the largest and most complex building uniting a hotel, office building and theater into one structure.

William Jenney's Leiter Building of 1879, Adler and Sullivan's Hammond Library of 1882, Shiller Building of 1882, Kehilath Anshe Ma'ariv Synagogue of 1890 and the Chicago Stock Exchange of 1894 also are shown.

The photographs, plans, and drawings were selected from the files of the Historic American Building Survey, a unit of the National Park Service. For the last two years, the survey has supported intensive projects of recording significant Chicago structures.

Campaign on bus crimes

The executive director of the Bi-State Development Agency has called upon his drivers, municipal police officers and the public to join in a vigorous campaign to combat criminal activity and other disruptive behavior aboard buses.

Robert J. Baer said during the weekend the Bi-State Development Agency is committed to explore every available means to see that the number of incidents aboard buses is reduced.

Measures being considered include special Electronic devices with which the driver can alert police; improved and speeded-up procedures between drivers, dispatchers and police. Also prominent posting of fare requirements for passengers to decrease fare disputes; incentive programs to stimulate positive responses on the part of operators and passengers; and intensive pursuit and prosecution of offenders.

Baer emphasized that police departments have been "extremely cooperative" in handling incidents of which they are made aware.

"However," said Baer, "we need to address ways and means of providing even quicker response time."

A stepped-up schedule of meetings with police officers in Missouri and Illinois is planned over the next several weeks.

"Some drivers and passengers are understandably reluctant to become involved or to report incidents for fear of reprisal," Baer said. "But any successful crime-fighting program of necessity requires the close cooperation of the public, the police and our own employees."

"Obviously, a large urban transit system is going to be affected by the general lack of respect for law and the rights of others that prevails at all levels of society today," Baer said. "But," he added, "that does not excuse Bi-State, its staff and drivers, the police or the general public from assuming their share of responsibility."

Baer said recent publication of Bi-State's statistics on disruptive incidents has created some controversy.

He pointed out, "Our records are only as reliable as the reports we have received. From these reports it would appear that, considering the fact that we run 7,000 trips each day and carry more than 80 million passengers a year, the incidence of disruptive behavior is minimal."

"However, even one incident is unacceptable."

"We intend to prosecute to the limit of the law any and all offenders in an all-out effort to eliminate criminal activity on buses — and assure the continued safety of our drivers and passengers."

Consumers facing stern gasoline-saving measures

By FRANK MACOMBER
Press-Record Washington Bureau

Americans are notoriously slow to conserve anything unless forced by some authority to do so.

True, we tightened our belts somewhat on auto fuel consumption after the Arab oil boycott of 1973, but only because the government made it so tough to get gasoline.

We hate to wait in line, too. So, much of the real fuel conservation so far has come in improved automobile performance.

In fact, greater fuel efficiency really has been the only key to gasoline conservation.

American motorists no longer abide strictly by the 55-mile-per-hour speed limit, nor do they pool their cars in any great numbers.

And there are more vacationing motorists on the road than ever before.

So they haven't been contributing much to saving gas since the long lines of waiting cars and Sunday closing of service stations ended.

While Congress and the government's energy-related agencies keep insisting the automobile industry can do better about gas economy, its record so far deserves high marks.

The average new car was getting between 12 and 13 miles per gallon in the early 1970s.

By 1975, fuel efficiency of the average new auto had climbed to 15.8 miles per gallon.

And the average efficiency of 1977 model cars is estimated at 18.6 miles per gallon.

That allows motorists to travel nearly five miles farther on a gallon of fuel than they did only three years ago.

The goal for the 1980 model year is an average of 20 miles per gallon for all cars sold in the United States.

The average fuel efficiency of all cars on the road — old and new — has risen from a low of 13.1 m.p.g. in 1973 to 13.51 m.p.g. in 1975.

The average will continue to move up in the next few years as older, less fuel-efficient cars are replaced by newer models.

Without fuel-savvy cars, American motorists would be heading for an early fuel drought.

Travel and gas consumption are following a long-range pattern which will see highway travel climb from nearly 1.4 trillion vehicle miles in 1976 to more than two trillion miles in the year 2000.

Fuel consumption is expected to remain fairly steady, despite the increased mileage, but only because cars are using less gas and will spew out even less in the years ahead.

If we were true conservationists, the measures prescribed by the government would ease the fuel demand sharply.

For example, the 55-m.p.h. law saved an estimated two billion gallons of gas in its first 18 months. But the savings have dropped as more and more motorists ignore the limit.

Ride sharing has the potential of saving 10.5 million gallons of gas each day.

But it won't because Americans don't like to share rides or pool up for trips to and from work. So, only a few isolated car pool plans have worked well.

Americans long have relied on technology to solve critical problems.

Even so, despite the auto industry's progress in cutting motor fuel consumption, technology can't be the whole answer.

It must be combined with other conservation measures such as sensible driving habits — smoother starts, slower speeds, better trip planning and

St. Joseph pupil in semi-final bee

Perry Perdue, 13, a pupil at St. Joseph Parochial School, was among 16 winners from the bi-state metropolitan area during the weekend in the quarter-final match of the 25th annual Spelling Bee, sponsored by The Globe Democrat.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Perdue Sr., 2113 Grand Ave.

The Perdue youth will be one of 58 students competing this Saturday morning in the semi-final round. Twenty-six of the semi-finalists are from outside Illinois and Missouri and 32 will represent schools in the two-state metropolitan region.

Eight finalists from the Saturday morning session will compete at 1 p.m. the same day in the final round.

The area winner will receive an all-expense paid trip to Washington, D.C. to participate in the national finals in June, a 30-volume set of Encyclopaedia Britannica, a watch, stereo set and reference books.

sharing rides.

If we American motorists won't do it, the government apparently is going to force us into even sterner gas-saving measures.

Chouteau inventory

The newly-installed Chouteau Township Board of Trustees last week instructed new Highway Commissioner Wilfred "Bud" Eberhardt to prepare a new inventory of the equipment for which he is assuming responsibility.

He said he has been only partly successful in assembling road equipment in use in the past. The board asked him to continue his attempts to pinpoint equipment and tool locations.

Eberhardt said that in the township highway garage he found a few screwdrivers and other small tools.

Highway department employees informed him at the meeting that a large tractor was in use near the curve in Lake Drive adjacent to the Fort Tavern. The tractor was moved to the town garage later last week.

A pulverizer that was borrowed by the City of Madison subsequently broke down, it was noted.

The pulverizer is to be returned to the township, employees said. It is a device utilized to grind up tree limbs.

Mrs. Patricia Polley, town clerk, said a former official has conducted an extensive search for a chain saw. Employees said they have been unable to locate some small tools, including socket wrenches.

Recently-purchased culvert pipe costing $1,300 has been placed in use, the board was told. Some of the pipe went into new installations and some replaced damaged culverts.

It was unclear to the trustees whether householders have been charged for culvert replacements. The board decided not to take any action on that topic at this time.

Church legislative seminar

Protestant and Roman Catholic churchmen from throughout Illinois will participate in the third annual Illinois Impact Legislative Seminar in Springfield which is being held this week under sponsorship of the Illinois Conference of Churches.

Governmental leaders and theologians will be featured at the seminar, at Forum 30 in Springfield.

Pastor Richard John Neuhaus of Brooklyn, N.Y., a social activist and religious journalist, will give the major theological address at the seminar.

Neuhaus was in the news in 1975 as an organizer of "The Hartford Appeal," a document which called on church social activists to be more clear and vocal about theological bases of their social involvements. He will speak on "Christian Faith and Public Policy."

Among the scheduled speakers are Lt. Governor David O'Neal, "State Funding for Human Services"; Senate President Thomas Hynes, "Democratic Party Evaluation of the Thompson Administration"; and Charles Rowe, director of the Illinois Department of Corrections, "Overcrowding in Illinois Prisons."

Delegates will be given a legislative briefing on such topics as the Equal Rights Amendment, the energy crisis in Illinois, the status and role of women, fair employment practices and consumer issues. Legislative representatives are scheduled to participate. Sister Mary Luke Tobin of the national office of Church Women United also will be featured as a respondent to Pastor Neuhaus and as a CWU leader for the workshop.

Seminar participants will be given tours of the Capitol and legislative offices. There will be a strategy session dealing with lobbying, world hunger, religion, politics and related subjects.

The delegates will be hosts for breakfast with representatives and senators from their home districts.

Illinois Impact is a program of the Illinois Consortium on Governmental Affairs, a group associated with the Illinois Conference of Churches.

It was founded in 1974 as an agency to establish priorities among governmental issues, to make recommendations on specific issues, and to encourage active church participation in public debate of such public issues.

All sessions of the Impact seminar will be open to the public.

Patchworkers Club entertains mothers

The Patchworkers 4-H Club hosted its first Mother and Daughter banquet last week at 6:30 in the evening in St. Elizabeth church hall for 18 members and their mothers.

After the dinner, Wendy McIlvoy gave a reading entitled, "When God Created Mothers."

Those who served as committee chairmen for the event were Joan Krystopa, Karen Toussaint and Ann Fuller.

President Wendy McIlvoy presided at a business meeting with Winona Cox leading the 4-H pledge and Ann Fuller the pledge to the flag.

The president welcomed all mothers and extended appreciation to committees who completed arrangements for the dinner meeting.

Future plans include a Federation Clothing Buying trip to St. Clair Square today for the girls 12 years or older. The girls were reminded of the Project and Activities Demonstrations to be held on May 13 at the Extension Office. They were encouraged to participate in the affair, and so far there are only 2 girls entered.

Any Harbim led a discussion about a field trip to tour Shaw's Garden on June 1.

The telephone committee will finalize the plans.

The Public Speaking contest will be held on June 9, at 7:30 p.m. at the Extension Office. The speeches must be original and be at least four minutes long but no longer than six minutes, it was announced.

The five girls who presented demonstrations at the Home Extension Office, April 30, gave their demonstrations before the group. They were Mary Loftus doing "Chicken a la Jeffery"; Karen Toussaint, "Ooey Goopy Butter Cakes"; Joan Krystopa, "For a Change, Try Cornbread"; Amy Patterson, "Tape with Measuring Flour"; and Joanne Little, "Sugar by Degrees".

Others present were Debbie and Sue Burnett, Linda and Patrice Grobel, Janet Jacobino, Christina Kessler, Lynda and Mickey Loftus and Shelly Loftus.

The next meeting will be held on June 2, at St. Elizabeth's hall at 7 p.m. at which time members will work on their 4-H records. Each girl should bring "everything" pertaining to their projects, Mrs. Martha McIlvoy, leader said.

South redecorating project by students

The Granite City High School South library has been redecorated through a joint effort of student clubs, faculty members and alumni, spearheaded by the Student Council.

School clubs helping with the project were Modern Music Masters, Future Homemakers of America (FHA) Lettermen and Speech and Theater.

Nearly $1,000 was spent on the project with the Student Council, raising $800.

The project was supervised by Mrs. Cathy Reibold and Mrs. Jean Nelson. According to a Student Council spokesman, the two faculty members spent much of their own free time because they like helping students.

The South building and trades classes under the direction of Larry King did the wallpapering, hanging of the drapes and installation of curtain rods.

Clothing students who worked on the project were JoAnn Banco, Janet Smith and Valerie Tripp.

Specific improvements to the library were wallpapering, painting the wood molding and replacing the venetian blinds with gold sheers, shades and curtains.

The January and June graduating classes of 1951 donated an oil painting to be placed in the library.

President Tami Terrell of the Student Council said, "The redecoration project was one of the council's main school improvement goals for the 1976-77 year. These improvements could not have been made possible without the teachers and students donating their free time to help. Our librarians also were most cooperative during the project, despite the confusion caused in the redecoration."

HOSPITAL LABORATORY now occupies 6,300 square feet at St. Elizabeth Hospital and is scheduled to be more than doubled in size and scope as part of the present expansion program. It performs 662,000 laboratory tests annually.

Diverse tasks at busy laboratory

The St. Elizabeth Hospital laboratory has come a long way to become the 20th Century — nearly 21st Century — facility it is today, associates (employees) of that department said at an open house last month in observance of National Laboratory Week.

In 1966, the lab cramped itself into a room of 357 square feet, housed two automated machines and had six persons on the staff receiving 20,000 test requests per year, most of them required to be done by hand.

A pathologist visited the hospital daily for three to four hours, taking a good proportion of the tests with him to be done by an outside laboratory, it is recalled. Today, the lab spreads over 6,300 square feet, is equipped with 30 pieces of automated machinery and is staffed by 54 persons who performed 662,000 tests last year.

The laboratory here is divided into particular areas, some of which contain subsections. The divisions include:

1. Chemistry.
2. Hematology.
3. Microbiology.
4. Coagulation.
5. Serology.
6. Urinalysis.
7. Blood bank.
8. Autopsy.

Supervising each of these areas is a section chief, a specialist in his or her respective division.

Chemistry is divided into (a) automated, (b) "special" and (c) manual.

In automated chemistry, all admissions and pre-surgery test routines are done.

In "special" chemistry, electrophoresis testing takes place. It is here also that RIA testing is done — a type of nuclear medicinal approach where radioactive materials are mixed with serums.

In manual chemistry, procedures are required to be done by hand, with one technician per test. It is in this phase where all "stats" are performed.

Hematology is the area of the lab where cell counting is done on blood, spinal and pleural fluids. In coagulation, clotting factors are reviewed.

The microbiology portion is where all bacteria cultures are performed. This section works closely with another hospital department, infection control.

Serology is the section where procedures investigate such diseases as rheumatic fever, syphilis, mononucleosis and arthritis — or any other disease in which an antibody would be detected.

Urinalysis is an area of the lab that has recently undergone change. A quality control on volume received and a new system of pickup have had a "tremendous impact" on technician morale, thereby increasing test value and improving patient care, according to Lori Stanzell, lab teaching supervisor.

Typing and cross-matching for transfusions occur in the lab's blood bank. The Red Cross provides all blood housed in the blood bank, and operates under rigid quality control.

On the average, 100 "units" (pints) of blood are transfused each month, and 300 units are cross-matched per month, according to Mrs. Stanzell.

In the establishing stage are a histology department and a "stat" lab, each expected to be functioning within the year.

A typical laboratory test follows this described route: First, a para-technician obtains specimens according to Nursing Service regulations as ordered by a patient's attending physician.

In the lab, each specimen is assigned a number and is written into a log, which is arranged by floor.

Next, the specimen is distributed to that particular area of lab performing the intended task.

The St. Elizabeth Hospital lab processes approximately 300 to 350 requisitions per day shift on inpatients alone.

Outpatients add another 30 to 50 requisitions a day. A single patient specimen can require anywhere from one to 15 tests.

Working hand-in-hand with the lab staff members are pathologists Dr. Joseph B. Kopp, who is laboratory director, and Dr. M. Marban.

Another pathologist, Dr. James Spindler, is expected to join the staff here in the near future.

In the pathology department, diseases of the tissues, organs and fluids of the body are studied.

A technician makes the specimen slides and all else is done by a pathologist, including "grossing," whereby he describes, measures and makes a preliminary diagnostic report on the specimen in question.

St. Elizabeth's pathology department is equipped to do frozen sections, which allows an immediate view of the specimen.

Other concerns of the hospital pathology department are bone marrow and cytology, the study of cells strictly in relation to tissues, not blood.

As in many cases in contemporary society, automation accounts for the major changes in laboratory practices, Sister Mary George and Mrs. Stanzell agree.

More sophisticated instruments afford new ways of running tests — as well as cutbacks in expense — and make it possible for one skilled technician to complete as many as 12 tests on a single machine.

In addition, "quicker" detection, stricter governmental regulations on quality control, and increasing educational requirements for technicians give a better grade of performance for the patient's sake, Mrs. Stanzell said.

"To give one an idea of the difference a tool can make, last year we were sending out 5,000 to 7,000 particular tests per month before we got the SMA 12-60 machine."

"That number has dropped to 200 to 400 per month now," according to Sister Mary George.

Both women called special attention to mounting requirements for lab technicians. These demands eventually may lead their department to set up its own program on laboratory medicine.

The U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare has already instituted extensive examination of technicians, and now the lab is engaged in a formal maintenance program.

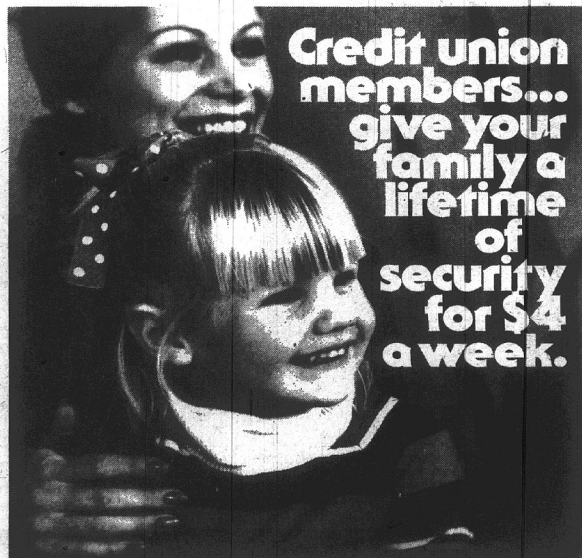

In this program, each technician is assigned an instrument and is responsible for record keeping and general care.

"I'm satisfied with the changes I've seen in the lab over the years. I believe we've made great strides in medicine — and the development of direct doctor-technician working relationships — to better serve in diagnosis and treatment of the sick," Sister Mary George concluded.

Reschedule payments for student veterans

Students enrolled in Veterans Administration educational programs have been reminded that it will be a long time before advance payments following receipt of their May 1 allowance check. Some 1.5 million veterans, dependents and service members will receive a notice with their May 1 checks, covering enrollment for May, telling them this. Their May check is their last under VA's prepayment system. Similar notification accompanied the April 1 check.

The Veterans Education and Employment Assistance Act of 1976 eliminated prepayment of monthly allowances for VA trainees, effective June 1. The monthly check for June enrollment will be issued July 1. Subsequent VA checks will follow each additional month of enrollment.

New procedures for advance payment also become effective June 1. Advance payments at the beginning of a school term for the first month, or partial month, plus the following month, will be made only if the student makes the request in writing to the school and the school agrees to process the advance payment. Previously, advance payment was automatic with enrollment.

The student's written request for advance payment must be included with the enrollment certification submitted by the school to the VA.

The enrollment certification must be received by the VA at least 30 days before the start of regular registration, a VA spokesman stressed. Following receipt of the advance payment, no additional VA check will be mailed for approximately three months, because of the elimination of the prepayment provision.

Students who receive an advance check in September for covering enrollment through October, will not be eligible for an educational payment for November enrollment until Dec. 1.

Disabled veterans enrolled in VA vocational rehabilitation programs are encouraged to contact their VA rehabilitation specialist to discuss whether an advance payment is feasible. Complete information on all VA educational assistance programs is available from veterans representatives on campus or local VA regional offices.

Banana-eating contestant hurt

A loser in a "banana-eating contest" at the 15-Acres Lounge, 900 West Chain of Rocks Road, was injured when several men assaulted him after he objected to how the contest was conducted early this week.

Warren Stahl, 20, St. Louis, told Madison County sheriff's deputies he felt he had won the contest, which was to be decided by audience applause. He said when they called each contestant's name for applause, they skipped his name. He went to the emcee and objected, at which time several persons assaulted him and threw him physically out of the lounge.

While being thrown out, he was struck on the left side and the left elbow and his shirt was torn, he alleged.

KEY USED IN THEFT

Virginia Waterman, 1934 Cleveland Blvd., was awakened by a noise in her home Monday, and when she investigated, she found her $400 color television set had been stolen from the living room. A key to the house was found in the front door lock. She said she rents apartments upstairs and several renters and former renters have keys.

Emphasize alcoholism treatment

Illinois State Police in cooperation with the Illinois Department of Mental Health are conducting a series of seminars on the Alcoholism and Intoxication Treatment Act for area police officers.

The seminars, part of a statewide training program, include today and tomorrow at the Sunset Hills Holiday Inn, May 12 at the Gardens Restaurant and Motel, Litchfield, and June 2 at the Ramada Inn, Alton.

The program is designed to familiarize police with Public Act 78-1270, which decriminalizes public intoxication.

The statute places responsibility for administering the Act with the State Department of Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities.

Police departments throughout the state have been invited to send officers to attend the seminars. There is no cost to the police agency for participation in the program.

A total of 41 six-hour sessions will be presented in 36 Illinois cities by two Illinois State Police troopers.

The course is aimed at familiarizing law enforcement officers with procedures to be followed and resources available to enable them to comply with provisions of the law.

The law, which was effective July 1, 1976, provides that "it is the policy of this state that alcoholics and intoxicated persons engaged in public drunkenness may not be subjected to criminal prosecution solely because of their consumption of alcoholic beverage, but rather should be afforded a continuum of treatment in order that they may lead normal lives as productive members of society."

Alcohol treatment centers have been set up in medical facilities throughout the state.

Council split on bill for lift station

A bill for $727 by the Illinois Power Co. to cover the cost of installing a new electric service at a lift station to be rebuilt on Mockingbird Lane by Archer Daniels Midland was approved by the City Council Monday last week, but only by a vote of 8 to 5, a minimum majority necessary for passage.

Aldermen who objected to the payment said they had understood that the cost of rebuilding the lift station to replace one unable to handle the sewage flow from the ADM plant would be paid by ADM.

City Engineer Monroe Brewer explained that the agreement between ADM and the city provided that ADM would pay "up to" $30,000 to construct a new pumping station.

Mayor Paul Schuler noted that the agreement also provided the city would pick up extra costs involved in the construction.

On a roll call vote, Aldermen Sam Whitmer, Roy Coulter, Emerald Daves, Warren Decatur and Glen Sprankle voted not to pay the amount. Earl Baker, Ronald Coleman, Dallas Elyvins and Steve Basarich.

STEAL CANNED GOODS

About $40 to $50 worth of canned goods were stolen from the kitchen cabinet at the home of Ann Nabzielko, 2018 McCasland Ave., Madison, during the weekend. It could not be determined how entry was gained.

Steel imports still on rise

Steel imports in February ran ahead of the comparable 1976 month, the American Iron and Steel Institute reported this week. The Institute noted that Japanese steel remained the dominant force in this country's steel imports market, accounting for well over 50 per cent of the total of the first two months of the year.

Steel imports from all countries totaled 1,002,000 tons in February, nearly four per cent more than the 966,000 tons of steel imported into the U.S. in February of last year.

Through the first two months of 1977, steel imports reached 2,124,000 tons — up 7.6 per cent from the 1,973,000 tons of foreign steel received in the same 1976 period.

Japanese steel imports in February reached 600,000 tons, down 2.9 per cent from 618,000 tons in the same month last year.

In the first two months of this year, European steel imports were 1,369,000 tons, or more than half of the two-month total of all foreign steel coming into U.S. ports. This was down marginally from 1,285,000 tons in the first two months of 1976.

Imports from Europe in February of this year totaled nearly 157,000 tons, an increase of 37.6 per cent from the 114,000 tons which arrived from Common Market countries in February of last year.

Through the first two months of this year, European steel imports were 372,000 tons. This was up 54.5 per cent from the 241,000 tons of steel imports from these countries during the first two months of last year.

Steel imports from Belgium, Luxembourg, France and Italy showed the largest percentage gains in a two-month year-to-year comparison.

All-City Band Festival May 21

The fifth All-City Band Festival is scheduled Saturday, May 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the Granite City High School South Memorial Gym.

Guest conductor for the event will be Harold L. Hillyer, director of bands at Eastern Illinois University.

The elementary, junior high and high school bands will join during the day for rehearsals at the school.

Hillyer joined the Eastern Illinois University faculty in 1972. He is director of the Symphony Wind Ensemble, the Marching Blue of EIU and supervises all band activities at the university.

New Prather pupils to get acquainted Monday

A "Get Acquainted Night" for students who will enter Prather Junior High School as seventh graders this fall and their parents will take place at 7 p.m. Monday in the school gymnasium.

The event will offer an opportunity for the incoming seventh grade pupils and their parents to tour the school building, make some new friends and meet several of the teachers, Jack Haug and Mrs. Dolores Eubanks, Prather JHS counselors, said.

The program is for current sixth graders and their parents or guardians only, the counselors advised.

Sixth-grade teachers at the various elementary schools should be informed if a student and his parent are planning to attend, so adequate preparations can be made, Haug said.

Students will go through a mock three-period schedule to become accustomed to finding some rooms. In each 10 minute class period, an interesting and "fun" assignment will be given, the counselors said.

During the mock classes, the students and parents may inspect the building and cookies and punch will be served in the cafeteria, Mrs. Eubanks advised.

Ill. Power net lower

Illinois Power Company earnings per share of common stock for the 12 months ended March 31 were $2.29, Wendell J. Kelley, chairman and president of the company has announced in an interim report to stockholders.

The figure is down from the $2.76 per share for the same period a year ago, but up from the $2.41 per share for the calendar year of 1976, Kelley said.

For the first quarter of this year, earnings were $1.93 per share to compare with 90 cents per share in the first quarter of 1976.

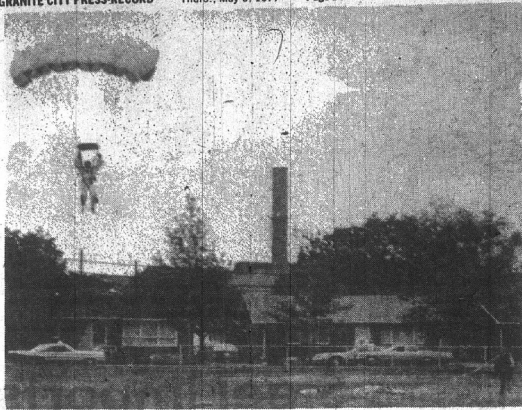

Commenting on the company's nuclear power project near Clinton, Kelley noted that two electric cooperatives have signed letters of intent to increase their total ownership participation in the plant from 13.88 per cent to 20 per cent.

Additional participation by the two, Soyland Power Cooperative and Western Illinois Power Cooperative, has been made available through the decision of the city of Springfield not to exercise its option to participate.

Unit No. 1 at the Clinton station is scheduled for operation in 1981.

Reservations due for Holy Land tour

A 12-day tour of the Holy Land and Switzerland is open to any Quad-City resident who is interested. The dates are November 1-12 this year. Local tour hosts will be the Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Boda, of St. John Lutheran Church.

Detailed information and brochures may be obtained by contacting the Rev. Boda at 2017 St. Clair Ave., or by phone at 452-4127 or 476-4553. This will be the third time that Rev. and Mrs. Boda will be leading tours to the Holy Land. They also have chaperoned "America's Youth in Concert," made up of America's youthful musicians from all 50 states, on 30-day tours of Europe and some American cities, on two occasions.

Attempts are being made to arrange for a charter flight to the Holy Land. If 246 reservations can be secured by May 15, the charter arrangement will become a reality. Rev. Boda said. Thirty other tour hosts in the metropolitan area along with the Bodas are working together to achieve this goal. This will reduce total costs of the trip appreciably.

This fall's trip will include a full-day bus tour of Jerusalem and Bethlehem, a guided walk tour through the Old City of Jerusalem, and the following cities by bus, Bethany, Jericho, Ein Gedi, Hebron and a tour of Masada, and the Dead Sea area. The tour will move north through many cities leading to the Sea of Galilee, Nazareth, Capernaum, Tiberias and other spots relating to the Life of Jesus will be visited. Tel Aviv will be the arrival and departure point.

The tour will continue to Milan, Italy, and the mountain region of Switzerland including Lugano, Lucerne, Interlaken, Lake Como, and back to Milan. Time will be allotted also for shopping and leisure touring. Rev. Boda added.

Miss Brenda Renee Manooagian, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Manooagian, Rural Route Two, Collinsville, formerly of Granite City, and R. Clay Thomas, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Thomas, St. Jacob, Ill., were united in marriage on March 19, at the First United Presbyterian Church, Granite City.

The Rev. David Maxton officiated at the double ring ceremony at 6:30 in the evening. Bouquets of carnations, poms, mums and ferns decorated the altar and burning tapers in tiered candelabra, provided the setting.

Mrs. Isabelle Schmidt presided at the organ and played, "Time in a Bottle," "The Twelfth of Never," "The Wedding Song" and "A Time For Us."

Miss Valerie J. Harris served as maid of honor with bridesmaids, Mrs. Dwana Welle, a sister of the bride, Miss Connie Mahl and Miss Maureen McFain.

Michelle Mersinger and John Lane, were the flower girl and ringbearer, respectively.

Danny Woolley attended the groom as best man. Wendell Lane, Bret Thomas, a brother of the groom, Donald Perkins, Michael Welle, the bride's brother-in-law, Dr. Timothy Hackney, and Stanley Manooagian, cousins of the bride, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

The newly married couple received guests at a reception held at the Croatian Home, after the service. A rehearsal dinner was held at The Peedeb Restaurant in O'Fallon.

They are now residing in Collinsville following a wedding trip in Tennessee, Georgia and Florida.

The bride is a junior student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, where she is majoring in industrial psychology. She also is a student job counselor at the District Job and Financial Assistance office at SIUE.

An employee of Granite City Steel, the groom is attending night school at SIUE where he is majoring in business administration.

Illinois Garden Clubs mark golden jubilee

The District V Garden Club of Illinois was represented at the 50th annual meeting in Chicago, with 22 members at the special Golden Jubilee celebration at the awards banquet.

The Golden Jubilee was celebrated with a buffet supper and musical presentation by the West Town's Barber Shop Quartet, "The Four Outcasts". Honored guests included Mrs. William J. Hedley, president elect - National Council of State Garden Clubs; Mrs. M. C. Gilhouse, Central Region Director; Robert H. Rucker, National Council Chairman Landscape Design and eight of the past presidents of The Garden Club of Illinois, Inc.

Opening session of the convention was conducted by President Mr. James C.

Dawson. Annual reports were given by the directors of the seven districts of Illinois and the committee chairman.

The afternoon program "Fifty Years of American Flower Arranging" was by Mrs. Emil C. Walker, a popular speaker who has made a masterful contribution to the art of flower arranging. The program featured historical designs by Illinois arrangers from the seven districts - two from District V.

Rucker showed colorful slides on "This Proud Land and its Design for Living" at the award banquet.

District V received awards, with five Blue Ribbon Clubs. Clervueview and Garden Study of Granite City, Lebanon, Holiday Shores and Shiloh

A special Red, White and Blue Bicentennial Award went to Mascoutah for their Civic Concern Project of locating the oldest tree. A Green Rosette went to District V for the best conservation achievement.

The Cahokia Garden Club received a Red Rosette for the best year book in District V. Mrs. Dorothy McMullen of Fairview Heights and past president of Shiloh Valley Club received a cash award in the Mabel M. A. Fitzsimmons Home and Garden Design, for improvement of her yard.

Mrs. Irene Shea of the Winstanley Club, Belleville, gave her report as Blue Star Memorial chairman. Illinois now has 59 blue star markers and are still leading the nation with the most markers for the second year, it was noted. Slides on "American Land Trust - Illinois" by Neil Gaston, executive director Illinois Chapter, Illinois Conservancy and a demonstration on "Japanese Flower Arranging" by Kazuko Ernst, O'Hara School, were shown. After lunch, the new officers were installed with Mrs. Jesse McDonald as the new state president, Mrs. Earl Glenn of Granite City Gardenaires was installed as state Conservation Chairman and Mrs. Shea retained her chairmanship of The Blue Star Memorial for the state.

There was a total of 517 attending the convention, with 136 clubs represented; three National officers and three National chairmen.

Alton dam called a football and it is still being kicked around in Washington despite clear need for replacement

Developments this week have seemed to simultaneously bolster and impede the effort to replace aging Alton Locks and Dam 26 with new facilities two miles downstream.

The Carter administration on Monday called for a new $12 million, 18-month study of the dam and locks situation, and the U.S. Senate Water Resources Subcommittee quickly cooperated with the recommendation. It conditionally authorized either repair or replacement following 18 months' field testing, and simultaneously voted to impose a user charge on inland waterways.

Meanwhile, Governor James R. Thompson, who had avoided a specific stand on the locks-dam project until now, said Tuesday he favors construction of a new 1,200-foot concrete lock and dam structure downstream from the existing facilities.

He suggested a "reasonable charge" for barges passing through it, and proposed a ban on increasing the depth of the Mississippi and Illinois waterways beyond nine feet anywhere north of Cairo, Ill. Urging 1,200-foot length instead of the present 600 feet (largest of the two locks), the governor cited traffic delays when large tows are broken up to fit within the 600-foot length. River tie-ups last 72 hours or more during peak harvest shipping periods, he noted.

The governor appropriately noted President Jimmy Carter's call for greater reliance on coal. Gov. Thompson said this objective increases the importance of inland waterways, since the most efficient transportation for such a bulk cargo is by water, and Illinois has a vast coal reserve.

Due to the central location, Locks and Dam 26 are "a vital link in water shipping and also vital to the economic well-being of the nation, handling more than $5 billion in goods annually, including grain, iron, steel, fertilizer and petroleum products."

"Even if approved tomorrow," Gov. Thompson added, "it would be eight to ten years before a new facility could become a reality."

"The Locks and Dam 26 question has been treated like a football in the past. It's been kicked at, passed and fumbled. We must act now and enact the legislation that will enable us to begin the necessary construction."

Since the bottleneck is so obvious and a remedy so clear, it would be unfortunate if the "kicking and fumbling" continue for another year and a half, at a high cost for the study and a considerable inflationary impact on construction expenditures.

Review of election laws could help voters and officials

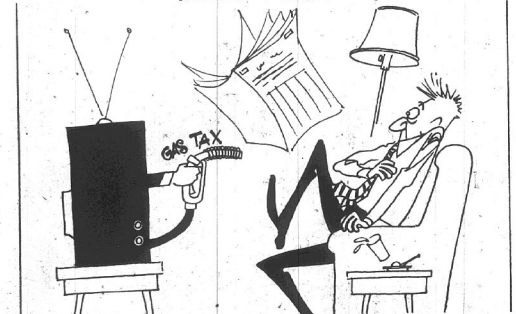

Two current lawsuits challenge the procedures and outcome of April balloting in the Venice School District and Nameoki Township. Whether the suits will be upheld is unknown; this will be determined in the courts on the basis of pertinent evidence and testimony.

It undoubtedly is normal procedure for complainants to cite a wide variety of potential election errors, since they can only guess regarding what points might be substantiated. It also is considered routine in litigation to blame everyone who might even remotely be responsible, leaving it up to the courts to decide which if any parties are at fault. Nevertheless, the broad scope of the suits and the diversity of the allegations are disturbing in that they suggest extreme confusion over voting guidelines among citizens, candidates, poll judges and elected officials.

Well in advance of the next round of elections, the Madison County clerk and the vote officials of taxing bodies throughout the county might find it worthwhile to jointly review procedural requirements in detail and make doubly sure that all voters and election authorities fully know and understand the rules.

Walker comeback predicted

By BOB ESTILL

SPRINGFIELD — Vic de Grazia, who was Dan Walker's deputy governor and campaign manager, is alive and well and expecting the former governor to try a comeback.

After Walker left office, de Grazia set up a consulting firm in Park Ridge in partnership with Chicago industrialist David Green, Walker's old top political adviser.

His chief activity now is trying to round up clients from the business and political arena, a venture that's not been a raving success.

De Grazia concedes there might be those who view the firm with suspicion, looking on it as a holding company or headquarters for future Walker political activities. But he doesn't see it as a major problem.

"If there is a problem in Illinois, it isn't outside of Illinois; and we're looking outside the state for business too," de Grazia says.

He says he detects a mellowing in the attitude towards Walker in his conversations with Cook County Democrats. "A lot of the hostility is dissipating," de Grazia says. "I think that's due both to (Richard J.) Daley's death, and because there's no reason to disagree on anything."

Although Walker is frequently characterized as a master of confrontation politics, de Grazia says "I think that's due both to (Richard J.) Daley's death, and because there's no reason to disagree on anything."

De Grazia hints strongly at the possibility of future accord between Walker and Chicago Mayor Michael Bilandic.

"I think certainly, on Dan Walker's part, he wants to live in peace and do so without giving up any of his convictions," de Grazia says. "I think that's true with the Cook County organization, and without their giving up any of their convictions either. ... I think Mayor Bilandic and most of the leaders are more flexible than Daley was; and Dan Walker is not inflexible."

Worry over town drainage outlook

To the Editor:

Citizens of Nameoki Township, have we not seen and heard our story before, only on a grander scale nationally. Now, in our own backyards, we find public servants breaking promises and ignoring duties.

During the celestial rains of a few weeks ago, men who had pump duty had to be called by concerned citizens worried about their homes and their neighbors.

Grown men acted like little schoolboys, "passing the buck." They would only have needed to ride a block or so to turn on a pump. A post with an important function was left inoperative for about ten days.

Storm drains had become filled with small brick pieces, tree limbs, sawdust, construction materials and paper. Expensive landscaping and evergreens, etc., have had a hard enough time getting their start, due to experiencing their first winter, Spring rain and invasions by dog packs have been killing shrubs.

Calling the township office for help April 22, I was told, "there's a changing of the guard" and they couldn't do anything that day.

They said to wait till the next meeting and then call the new supervisor, Harold Davis.

Employees who got paid had a duty to perform until their time was up. Some want to continue to serve us. Couldn't they have made one phone call to show concern and pride in their job? Where has the last election left the sewers?

(Citizens have been left with a heavy load. Newcomers like myself should pledge to become involved, active and even demanding, when we need to be, to see that there is fair treatment and that our tax moneys are used well.)

MRS. PAUL HILL
2191 Clinton Drive.

Issue prompts a future candidacy

To the Editor:

"Government of the people, for the people, by the people." These words are from our Constitution.

In the light of events that have happened the last few weeks here in Granite City, they are either the words of a Utopian dream or the results of mental fantasy by the framers of that very same constitution.

It is unbelievable that a few "lame duck" aldermen, politicians could, with malice, pettiness and harkening back to old boiler-room-type politics, thwart the wishes of a majority of the citizens and residents of this town that I call my home.

Any person elected to a position in any government is only serving as an agent of those who elected them. Why must these elected proceed to make decisions behind closed doors, not truly representing those whose votes put them in office?

Although the actions of the board of aldermen, in removing the position of superintendent of streets from an elected position, may be legal, I'm sure the original intent of the ordinance was to use such authority for the needed emergency measures, not as a reprehensible movement of political spite.

Therefore, as a result of the display on the part of 11 aldermen, some attending their last official meeting of the board of aldermen because they were either beaten or chose not to run in this latest election, I am now announcing my candidacy for 7th Ward alderman in the 1979 city election in the interest of good government and the right of citizens to know and participate in any important decisions.

BOB SIMON
1845 Spring Ave.

Appointive plan will aid the public

To the Editor:

I would like to commend the City Council members on their decision for appointment of the superintendent of streets instead of electing him.

This action should bring a closer working relationship with the mayor, city engineers and superintendent of streets for the good of all the people of Granite City.

I was employed by the Granite City Street Department during Supt. Lionell Portell's last election.

I chose not to vote for him, so I turn Mr. Portell told me to find another job.

It is obvious that Mr. Portell tried to unseat some of the aldermen, or they wouldn't have taken this course of action. I would like to ask Mr. Portell how he feels now that the shoe is on the other foot.

DAN RAPOFF
LeRoy, Ill.
Former Granite Cityan

Appointive plan will hurt the public

To the Editor:

At the start of the people of Granite City, aldermen have taken revenge on political enemies and made a political appointment of an office that we used to elect at the ballot box. By appointing a superintendent of streets, Mayor Schuler will eliminate the job of someone who does not support

The mayor and his "lame duck" board devised this scheme behind closed doors and aldermen passed the ordinance without discussion on the council floor.

It seems that comments by our superintendent of streets on a contract have prompted this action.

I have urged that all citizens of Granite City protest to the mayor and their aldermen this loss of our right to elect those who will serve us.

Trucks' night noise barely audible

To the Editor:

After reading the letter from the resident of Lee Avenue April 25, "Noisy truck disturbs neighborhood," I feel that it's a shame the truck had to run just to keep perishable fresh for inconsiderate, narrow-minded people who don't appreciate it any way.

A truck from here to California is gone five days with two drivers, and this man wants one night home before he goes on. If the refrigerator quits, he won't even have that and someone does without fresh produce.

Of course, we need an ordinance to prohibit trucks — we don't need fresh vegetables, meats and such.

Maybe we can get an ordinance to prevent steel trucks, too. Just because we get just about everything we need and use by truck, we shouldn't have to put up with them.

While we're getting these ordinances passed, I wonder if we can get one prohibiting narrow-minded people and boobies who have nothing to do but look for things to gripe about.

I think the driver should take up a collection for his neighbors, because I've parked my truck between my house and my neighbor's house and we could barely hear it run.

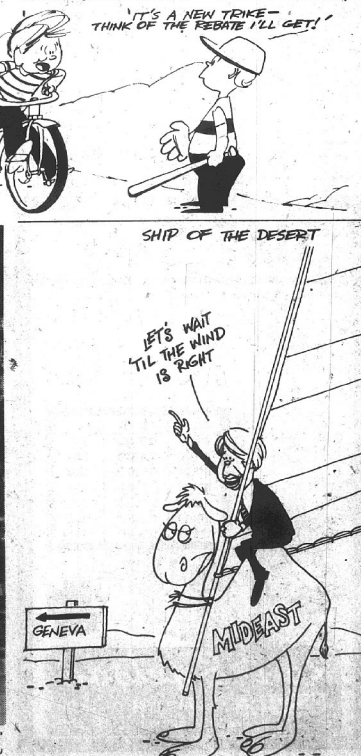

Of course, our houses are only 20 years old, and not insulated enough either.

WEST GRANITE TRUCKER

THIS ISN'T THE HALF OF IT. Student artworks too numerous to count filled the Granite City Memorial Gymnasium early this week for the 1977 "Academy of Fine Arts" exhibit. In this view, elementary pupils' artworks are shown between aisles along the floor, and high school students' entries are visible around the walls. Junior high pupils' paintings also were displayed.

Senior Citizens bus serves 595 in month

Edgar Paddock, president of the Senior Citizens Council, attended the meeting of the Kirkpatrick Golden Age Circle Club, last week, and announced the bus is in full service and 595 persons used the bus last month. Senior citizens are urged to call one day in advance for appointments. Paddock added.

Club President Mrs. Ruby Corbitt opened the meeting with members repeating the Lord's Prayer and pledge to the flag. Reports were given by Peggy Gibbons and Lumeta Durbin. Mrs. Caroline Lux announced sending cards to those who are ill, including Celia Davis, Georgine Graham, Frances Westbrook, Glen Lowe, Cleve Curtright, Laverne Neunzerling, Jewell Patterson and Ola Vee Nix. A birthday card was also sent to Emma Baumberger, who is residing in a nursing home.

Contributions will be sent to Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children in memory of two deceased members, Mrs. Peggy Teaney and James Cotter, it was noted.

Mrs. Corbitt said an increase for Medicare and social security will become effective on July 1.

Invitations were read from the Aina Shrine for members to participate in the annual circus parade in June and from the Downtown Neighborhood Restoration Society who are sponsoring a House Tour and Fair on May 15. The American Association of Retired Persons band will play at the fair, according to Mrs. Corbitt.

John Winkemeier, president of the More the Merrier Club, announced his club is sponsoring a rock-athon at the Crossroads Shopping Center on Saturday, May 7, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m., with proceeds to be donated to the Crippled Children's Society.

Paddock also gave a progress report on the new county building located at 21st Street and Delmar Avenue.

Thirty-two attended the session and birthday honorees included Michael Kadane, Lillian Gregory, Ruby Corbitt and Pearl Pasley.

Prize winners in the games were Kathryn Grimm, Gladys Ulter, Caroline Lux, Ruth Purkey, Filomena Gruber, Cleve Cox, and Minnie Kushnir.

MARRIED. Mr. and Mrs. Russel E. Feltmeyer who were united in marriage at Hope Lutheran Church. Formerly Miss Mary Ann McKinney, the bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Ray McKinney, 3719 Ruth Drive.

Mary Ann McKinney and Russel Feltmeyer wed

The wedding of Miss Mary Ann McKinney, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Ray McKinney, 3719 Ruth Drive, and Russel E. Feltmeyer, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville E. Feltmeyer, 4716 Warnock Ave., was solemnized on March 18 at Hope Lutheran Church.

Bouquets of spring flowers on the altar and burning tapers in branched candelabra provided the setting for a double ring ceremony performed at 7 p.m. by the Rev. David Fielding.

For her wedding the bride chose a long white sate-peau gown accented with Chantilly lace on the high standing collar and defining the sheer yoke of the Empire bodice. Her full length lace sleeves formed points at the wrists.

The full circular skirt and train was bordered with matching lace.

She wore a lace camelot headpiece to secure a fingertip length veil of French bridal illusion, and she held a bouquet of white carnations, red roses and baby's breath with red and white streamers.

Matron of honor Mrs. Jerry L. Ashford and bridesmaids Miss Debbie S. Topal and Miss Carolyn S. LeGate wore identical styled gowns in maize, Nile green and blue double knit.

The shoe-string straps crossed the back and the contour gapes were fashioned short in the front and extended to a fingertip length in the back.

Mrs. Ashford wore a round halo headpiece created with yellow flowers and ribbon streamers, in her hair and the bridesmaids selected ripple brim picture hats. Each attendant held a bouquet of yellow, white, blue and green carnations with baby's breath.

Kenny Rodgers attended the groom as best man. Dale and Larry Feltmeyer, Clarence Stephens and Brian Winfield, completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

The newly married couple received guests at a reception held at the Polish Hall in Madison. A rehearsal dinner was served at the bridal couple's home on the evening preceding the ceremony.
